

standards, and other pertinent information. Based on the review of this evidence, OSHA finds that MET meets the requirements of 29 CFR 1910.7 for expansion of the NRTL scope of recognition, subject to the limitation and conditions listed below. OSHA, therefore, is proceeding with this final notice to grant MET's scope of recognition. OSHA limits the expansion of MET's recognition to testing and certification of products for demonstration of conformance to the test standards listed in Table 1.

TABLE 1—LIST OF APPROPRIATE TEST STANDARDS FOR INCLUSION IN MET'S NRTL SCOPE OF RECOGNITION

Test standard	Test standard title
UL 60079–28 TIA 4950	Explosive Atmospheres - Part 28: Protection of Equipment and transmission Systems Using Optical Radiation. Requirements for Battery-Powered, Portable Land Mobile Radio Applications in Class I, II, and III, Division 1, Hazardous (Classified) Locations.
UL 551	Transformer Type Arc-Welding Machines.
UL 1004–1	Rotating Electrical Machines.

In this notice, OSHA also announces its final determination that the current version of TIA 4950 (Revision B) remains an appropriate test standard under the NRTL Program Regulation, at 29 CFR 1910.7. The preliminary Federal Register notice announcing these applications (87 FR 3353) requested comment on OSHA's preliminary determination that the revisions of May 2014 (Revision A) and July 2020 (Revision B) were not substantive in nature, and no comments were received in response to this preliminary determination. With this notice, the expansion for MET's recognition will cover the current version of TIA 4950.

OSHA's recognition of any NRTL for a particular test standard is limited to equipment or materials for which OSHA standards require third-party testing and certification before using them in the workplace. Consequently, if a test standard also covers any products for which OSHA does not require such testing and certification, a NRTL's scope of recognition does not include these products.

The American National Standards Institute (ANSI) may approve the test standards listed above as American National Standards. However, for convenience, the use of the designation of the standards-developing organization for the standard as opposed to the ANSI designation may occur. Under the NRTL Program's policy (see OSHA Instruction CPL 01–00–004, Chapter 2, Section VIII), only standards determined to be appropriate test standards may be approved for NRTL recognition. Any NRTL recognized for a particular test standard may use either the proprietary version of the test standard or the ANSI version of that standard. Contact ANSI to determine whether a test standard is currently ANSI-approved.

A. Conditions

In addition to those conditions already required by 29 CFR 1910.7, MET must abide by the following conditions of the recognition:

1. MET must inform OSHA as soon as possible, in writing, of any change of ownership, facilities, or key personnel, and of any major change in their operations as a NRTL, and provide details of the change(s);

2. MET must meet all the terms of the NRTL recognition and comply with all OSHA policies pertaining to this recognition; and

3. MET must continue to meet the requirements for recognition, including all previously published conditions on MET's scope of recognition, in all areas for which it has recognition.

Pursuant to the authority in 29 CFR 1910.7, OSHA hereby expands the scope of recognition of MET, subject to the limitations and conditions specified above.

[MCC FR 22–03]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Millennium Challenge Corporation.

ACTION: Notice of a new system of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC) proposes to establish a new system of records titled, “MCC/Internal-2 Reasonable Accommodations Records.” This system of records will include information that MCC collects and maintains on current and former federal employees, consultants, applicants, Personal Service Contractors, and federal contractors who request and/or receive reasonable accommodations from MCC for medical or religious reasons.

DATES: Submit comments on or before March 31, 2022. This new system is effective upon publication in the Federal Register, except for the routine uses, which are effective March 31, 2022.

ADDRESSES: You may submit written comments through the Federal Rulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>. All submissions received must include the agency name and docket number for this Federal Register document. The general policy for comments and other submissions from members of the public is to make them available for public viewing on the internet at <http://www.regulations.gov> as they are received without change, including any personal identifiers or contact information.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For general questions, please contact: Kim Bell, Acting Managing Director of Human Resources, Office of Human Resources, Department of Administration and Finance, Tel. 202–521–3603, hcmd@mcc.gov. For privacy questions, please contact: Christopher Ice, Chief Privacy Officer, at mccprivacy@mcc.gov. Please put “Reasonable Accommodations SORN” in the subject line of your email.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC) proposes to establish a new system of records titled, "MCC/Internal-2 Reasonable Accommodations Records." This system of records covers MCC's collection and maintenance of records on applicants for employment, employees, and other individuals who participate in MCC programs or activities who request or receive reasonable accommodations or other appropriate modifications from MCC for medical or religious reasons.

Title V of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, prohibits discrimination in services and employment on the basis of disability, and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1974 prohibits discrimination, including on the basis of religion. These prohibitions on discrimination require Federal agencies to provide reasonable accommodations to individuals with disabilities and those with sincerely held religious beliefs unless doing so would impose an undue hardship. In some instances, individuals may request modifications to their workspace, schedule, duties, or other requirements for documented medical reasons that may not qualify as a disability but may necessitate an appropriate modification to workplace policies and practices. MCC may address those requests pursuant to the general authority of the CEO contained in Title V of the United States Code.

Reasonable accommodations may include, but are not limited to: Making existing facilities readily accessible to individuals with disabilities; restructuring jobs, modifying work schedules or places of work, and providing flexible scheduling for medical appointments or religious observance; acquiring or modifying equipment or examinations or training materials; providing qualified readers and interpreters, personal assistants, service animals; granting permission to wear religious dress, hairstyles, or facial hair or to observe a religious prohibition against wearing certain garments; considering requests for medical and religious exemptions to specific workplace requirements; and making other modifications to workplace policies and practices.

MCC's Office of Human Resources processes requests for reasonable accommodations from employees and applicants for employment, respectively, who require an accommodation due to a medical or religious reason; MCC's Human Resources also processes requests based on documented medical reasons that may not qualify as a disability but that necessitate an appropriate modification to workplace policies and practices. The request, documentation provided in support of the request, any evaluation conducted internally, or by a third party under contract to MCC, the decision regarding whether to grant or deny a request, and the details and conditions of the reasonable accommodation are all included in this system of records.

MCC has provided a report of this system of records to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(r) and OMB Circular A-108, "Federal Agency Responsibilities for Review, Reporting, and Publication under the Privacy Act," dated December 23, 2016. This system will be included in the MCC inventory of record systems.
