

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: Contributions of Motor Vehicles, Boats, and Airplanes.

OMB Number: 1545–1959.

Project Number: Form 1098–C.

Abstract: Section 884 of the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (Pub. L. 108–357) added paragraph 12 to section 170(f) for contributions of used motor vehicles, boats, and airplanes. Section 170(f)(12) requires that a donee organization provide an acknowledgement to the donor of this type of property and is required to file the same information to the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 1098–C is used to report charitable contributions of motor vehicles, boats, and airplanes after December 31, 2004.

Current Actions: There are no changes being made to this form at this time. However, changes to the estimated number of responses will increase the burden by 1,302 hours. This request is being submitted for renewal purposes.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profits, Individuals or households, Farms, or Not-for-profit institutions.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 110,400.

Estimated Time per Respondent: 18 min.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 34,224.

The following paragraph applies to all the collections of information covered by this notice:

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection of information displays a valid OMB control number.

Books or records relating to a collection of information must be retained if their contents may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. Generally, tax returns and tax return information are confidential, as required by 26 U.S.C. 6103.

Desired Focus of Comments: The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is particularly interested in comments that:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility.

- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used.

- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including using appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., by permitting electronic submissions of responses.

Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and/or included in the ICR for OMB approval of the extension of the information collection; they will also become a matter of public record.

Approved: March 21, 2022.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Abstract: The VA Form 21P-534 is used to gather the necessary information to determine the eligibility of surviving spouses and children for dependency and indemnity compensation (DIC), death pension, accrued benefits, and death compensation. VA Form 21P-534a is an abbreviated application for DIC that is used only by surviving spouses and children of veterans who died while on active duty service. The VA Form 21P-534EZ is used for the Fully Developed Claims (FDC) program for pension claims, DIC and accrued claims.

VA Form 21P-534EZ has been updated, to include:

- Removed all Parent’s DIC questions from the form as this will be covered under the VA Form 21-535, Application for Dependency and Indemnity Compensation by Parent(s) (Including Accrued Benefits and Death Compensation When Applicable).
- Updated instructions.

- Added an optional use Survivors Benefits Application Checklist for applicant’s benefit to assist in organizing submission of claim.

- Separated Section I and II to include Veteran’s Identification Information/Claimant’s Identification Information.

- Removed questions—How many times veteran married?/How many times claimant married? as regulations allow.

- Removed mailing address of nursing home or facility from Section
