

Two substantively identical versions of that memorandum were posted to the website of the Office of Postsecondary Education, dated January 12 and January 18 (collectively, the “January 2021 memorandum”). Having reviewed the memorandum in consultation with the Office of Legal Counsel, we have determined that although it accurately describes the core features of the HEROES Act, its ultimate conclusions are unsupported and incorrect.<sup>5</sup> As such, it should be rescinded.

As an initial matter, the bulk of the January 2021 memorandum’s discussion of HEROES Act authority describes and quotes the key provisions of the HEROES Act. The memorandum explains that the HEROES Act provides the Secretary “authority to provide specified [6] waivers or modifications to Title IV federal financial student aid program statutory and regulatory requirements because of the declared National Emergency,” identifies that declared emergency as the COVID–19 national emergency declared on March 18, 2020, and characterizes this authority as “narrowly cabined” to achieving five enumerated purposes, including “ensur[ing] that . . . recipients of student financial assistance under title IV of the Act who are affected individuals are not placed in a worse position financially in relation to that financial assistance because of their status as affected individuals.” Jan. 2021 Mem. at 5–6.

The memorandum goes on to read in purported limitations on the scope of relief that may be afforded that are contrary to the clear text of the Act. The memorandum

<sup>5</sup> In addition to determining that the conclusions contained in the January 2021 memorandum were substantively incorrect, we have determined that the memorandum was issued in contravention of then-effective Department processes for issuing significant guidance. An Interim Final Rule issued by the Department on October 5, 2020, pursuant to Executive Order 13,891, established additional procedures for the issuance of guidance documents. See Rulemaking and Guidance Procedures, 85 FR 62,597 (Oct. 5, 2020); see also Exec. Order No. 13,891, 84 FR 55,235 (Oct. 9, 2019). That rule established new requirements for the issuance of guidance and “significant guidance,” defining the latter term to include guidance documents that “[r]aise novel, legal, or policy issues arising out of legal mandates [or] the President’s priorities.” 85 FR at 62,608. The public dissemination of the January 2021 memorandum violated a number of provisions of this rule, including that guidance must be “accessible through the Department’s guidance portal,” and that, barring compelling cause, all significant guidance may be published only after a 30-day public comment period and review by the Office of Management and Budget under Executive Order 12,866 of September 30, 1993. Id. That rule was rescinded in September 2021, 86 FR 53,863 (Sept. 29, 2021), but it was in effect at the time of the January 2021 memorandum’s publication. Thus, OGC has determined that the January 2021 memorandum was not properly promulgated.

<sup>6</sup> We read the term “specified” as acknowledging statutory limits on HEROES Act authority, including the enumerated purposes of 20 U.S.C. 1098bb(b)(1), and not as suggesting any atextual limitations on the Act’s clear grant of authority to waive or modify “any” statutory or regulatory provision applicable to student aid programs, provided other HEROES Act requirements are met.

advances three primary arguments in support of a conclusion that “Congress never intended the HEROES Act as authority for mass cancellation, compromise, discharge, or forgiveness of student loan principal balances, and/or to materially modify repayment amounts or terms.” Jan. 2021 Mem. at 6.

First, the memorandum recites certain statutory limits on the Secretary’s authority, including the HEROES Act’s statutory definition of individuals eligible for relief, 20 U.S.C. 1098ee(2), and the enumerated purposes for which waivers or modifications may be issued, id. § 1098bb(a)(2).

The memorandum is correct that such statutory provisions exist but provides no support for the suggestion that these provisions impose limitations beyond their clear terms. See Jan. 2021 Mem. at 6.

Second, the memorandum points to the HEROES Act’s references to avoiding “defaults” and a “cross-cite” to a separate provision of the Higher Education Act relating to the “return” of student loan funds, concluding that these provisions “provide a strong textual basis for concluding Congress intended loans to be repaid.” Id. But these provisions—which identify as allowable purposes issuing waivers or modifications to avoid defaults and granting relief from certain requirements that borrowers return certain payments—in no way impose a requirement that any exercise of HEROES Act authority must ensure that every borrower is left with a remaining balance on their loan. The reference to “defaults” authorizes the Secretary to “avoid” defaults; it does not require that he preserve their possibility. And the Higher Education Act provisions regarding the “return” of overpayments relate only to specific processes and calculations under which students are required to return grant and loan assistance if they withdraw from their school, see 20 U.S.C. 1091b; there is no conceivable reading of this provision that reflects a congressional intent that all borrowers, including those not covered by the section 1091b overpayment provisions, are required to repay their loans in full.

Third, the memorandum concludes that the authority to “waive or modify any statutory or regulatory provision” is limited to the definition of “modify” that was adopted for an unrelated telecommunications statute, and “does not authorize major changes.” Jan. 2021 Mem. at 6. The memorandum draws its definition of modify from MCI Telecomms. Corp. v. Am. Telephone & Telegraph Co., 512 U.S. 218, 225 (1994). In that case, the statutory provisions under review applied no clear limiting principle to a grant of modification authority to the FCC; the statute allowed modifications “in [the FCC’s] discretion and for good cause shown.” Id. at 224 (quoting 47 U.S.C. 203 (1988 ed. and Supp. IV)). Here, the HEROES Act itself clearly speaks to the scope of modification authority: the Secretary may make those modifications as may be “necessary to ensure” specific enumerated purposes. 20 U.S.C. 1098bb. The Secretary may not make modifications going beyond that limit, but nor is he restricted to a degree of modifications that would fall short of “ensur[ing]” the enumerated purposes are achieved. Moreover, the HEROES Act broadly authorizes the Secretary to act as he “deems necessary” to “waive or modify” any statutory or regulatory provision applicable to the student aid program. The January 2021 memorandum’s interpretation of “modify” would read the Act to authorize the Secretary to waive entirely or to make non-major changes in the relevant statutory or regulatory provisions, but not authorize the Secretary to do anything in between. That interpretation is illogical, and nothing in the HEROES Act’s broad grant of authority supports such a reading.

We have discussed these and other aspects of the January 2021 memorandum with the Office of Legal Counsel, and we further find persuasive the discussion of the January 2021 memorandum offered in the Office of Legal Counsel’s memorandum, which will be published in tandem with this memorandum’s recommended publication.

Conclusion

For the reasons detailed above, I recommend that you (1) determine that the January 2021 memorandum is formally rescinded as substantively incorrect and (2) authorize publication in the Federal Register and public posting of this memorandum as the Department’s interpretation of the HEROES Act.

Extension of a Currently Approved Information Collection for the Weatherization Assistance Program

AGENCY: Office Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy, U.S. Department of Energy.

ACTION: Notice and request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Department of Energy (DOE or the Department), pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995), intends to extend for three years, an information collection request with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). The information collection request, Historic Preservation for Energy Efficiency Programs, was initially approved on December 1, 2010, under OMB Control No. 1910-5155 and expired on September 30, 2015. The information collection request was previously approved on February 24, 2020 under OMB Control No. 1910-5155 and its current expiration date is February 28, 2023. This extension will allow DOE to continue data collection on the status of the Weatherization Assistance Program (WAP), the State Energy Program (SEP), and the Energy Efficiency and Conservation Block Grant (EECBG) Program. Program activities will ensure compliance with the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA).

DATES: Comments regarding this propose information collection must be received on or before October 31, 2022. If you anticipate difficulty in submitting comments within that period, contact the person listed FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section as soon as possible.

ADDRESSES: Written comments may be sent to Michael Tidwell by email to the following address: michael.tidwell@ee.doe.gov with the subject line “Historic Preservation for Energy Efficiency Programs (OMB No. 1910-5155)” included in the message. Submit electronic comments in WordPerfect, Microsoft Word, PDF, or ASCII file format, and avoid the use of special characters or any form of encryption. No telefacsimiles (faxes) will be accepted.
