POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

Records are stored in paper and electronic media.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

FDIC may retrieve records by a variety of fields, including but not limited to, keyword, name of individual or entity submitting a comment, contact information or any data elements submitted in or as part of a comment, document title, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) (search for a specific title within the CFR), CFR citation (search for the part or parts within the CFR title being searched), document type, document subtype, or date (e.g., date comment received or posted, Federal Register publication date, comment period end date).

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

Public comments received in response to rulemakings are temporary records that are destroyed/deleted 15 years after the rule or regulation becomes effective, in accordance with approved records retention schedules.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

Records are protected from unauthorized access and improper use through administrative, technical, and physical security measures. Administrative safeguards include written guidelines on handling personal information including agency-wide procedures for safeguarding personally identifiable information. In addition, all FDIC staff are required to take annual privacy and security training. Technical security measures within FDIC include restrictions on computer access to authorized individuals who have a legitimate need to know the information; required use of strong passwords that are frequently changed; multi-factor authentication for remote access and access to many FDIC network components; use of encryption for certain data types and transfers; firewalls and intrusion detection applications; and regular review of security procedures and best practices to enhance security. Physical safeguards include restrictions on building access to authorized individuals, 24-hour security guard service, and maintenance of records in lockable offices and filing cabinets.
