

into account age, sex, race, and ethnicity and sections 806(b) and (f) specifically provide the Secretary with authority to collect information and carry out workforce analytical activities. Collecting these data in the HRSA Electronic Handbook will help grant reviewers, policy makers and HRSA staff make decisions that expand the workforce and help increase access to health care.

The SDS Application Program Specific Form seeks to assist HRSA in assessing applicants for the SDS Program, which is to make grant awards to eligible schools to provide scholarships to full-time, financially needy students from disadvantaged backgrounds enrolled in health professions programs. To qualify for participation in the SDS program, a school must be carrying out a program for recruiting and retaining students from disadvantaged backgrounds, including students who are members of racial and ethnic minority groups, as required by section 737(d)(1)(B) of the PHS Act (42 U.S.C 293a(d)(1)(B)). To meet this requirement, a school must provide data via the SDS Application Program Specific Form that at least 20 percent of the school's full-time enrolled students and graduates are from a disadvantaged background.

The SDS Application Program Specific form previously approved under OMB Control No. 0915-0149 does not include substantive changes. Both forms will be used to collect three years of student and participant data from BHW program applicants only.

Likely Respondents: Respondents vary by the specific program and are determined by each program's eligibility, to include but are not limited to the following: Accredited schools of nursing with advanced education nursing programs; accredited allopathic schools of medicine; accredited schools of osteopathic medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, and graduate programs in behavioral or mental health; schools of nursing; nurse managed health clinics/centers; academic health centers; state or local governments; public or private nonprofit entities determined appropriate by the Secretary; and consortiums and partnerships of eligible entities when applicable.

Burden Statement: Burden in this context means the time expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, disclose, or provide the information requested. This includes the time needed to review instructions; to develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purpose of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing, and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; to train personnel and to be able to respond to a collection of information; to search data sources; to complete and review the collection of information; and to transmit or otherwise disclose the information. The total annual burden hours estimated for this ICR are summarized in the table below.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Requirements of Interested Organizations. Organizations that support Healthy People 2030, disease prevention, health promotion, and well-being and that demonstrate efforts toward addressing social determinants of health (SDOH) and health literacy, eliminating health disparities, and achieving health equity in the United States may submit an application online to become a Healthy People 2030 Champion. The online application is available at <https://health.gov/healthypeople/about/healthy-people-2030-champion-program>.

Eligibility for Interested Organizations. To be eligible to become a Healthy People 2030 Champion, an organization shall: (1) have a demonstrated interest in, understanding of, and experience with disease prevention, health promotion, SDOH, health disparities, health equity, health literacy, and/or well-being or (2) have an organizational or corporate mission that is aligned with the Healthy People 2030 vision, mission, overarching goals, foundational principles, or objectives; and (3) agree to sign a letter of understanding (LOU) with ODPHP, which will set forth the details of how the organization is supporting the vision of the Healthy People 2030. Individuals are not eligible to be Healthy People 2030 Champions.

Healthy People 2030 Champions. Healthy People 2030 Champions can be public and private organizations such as those at the state, local, county, and tribal levels, non-governmental organizations, non-profit organizations, businesses, academic organizations, organizations that impact health outcomes, philanthropic organizations, and tribal organizations that identify themselves as being aligned with or promoting Healthy People 2030, including the Healthy People 2030 vision and overarching goals. All organizations may apply. Applicants for Healthy People 2030 Champions shall complete an online application (located at <https://health.gov/healthypeople/about/healthy-people-2030-champion-program>) and identify in the application how they address or support health promotion, disease prevention, SDOH, health disparities, health equity, health literacy, and/or well-being and how they work in alignment with Healthy People 2030 through activities, philanthropy, or other means. Applicants for Healthy People 2030 Champions will be evaluated according to the organization's demonstrated commitment to support the overarching goals of Healthy People 2030 and the Healthy People 2030 objectives.

The following activities may be considered as an organization's demonstrated commitment to Healthy People 2030's overarching goals and objectives (<https://health.gov/healthypeople/about/healthy-people-2030-framework>):

- Promoting and increasing access to disease prevention and health promotion activities;
- Providing access to training or certification programs for disease prevention and health promotion;
- Addressing SDOH, eliminating disparities, achieving health equity, promoting health literacy, and/or promoting well-being using evidence-based interventions;
- Providing training and other necessary resources to adapt or modify disease prevention and health promotion activities to meet the needs of diverse populations, address SDOH, promote health literacy, eliminate disparities, achieve health equity, and/or promote well-being;
- Developing partnerships across a variety of sectors, including business, community, academia, education, faith-
