

through 1 or more qualified nongovernmental entities selected by the Secretary subject to standards set and enforced by the Secretary.” USDA specifically requests input from the public on this issue, including on questions such as:

- What specific functions should the third-party entity (or entities) perform in assisting USDA in delivering financial assistance provided for under section 22007 to those who suffered discrimination under the USDA farm loan programs?
- What criteria should USDA use in the selection of the third-party entity (or entities)?
- What guidance should USDA provide to the selected entity (or entities)?

The fourth issue is the linkage or leveraging, if any, between the financial assistance provided in this program and other USDA programs. USDA specifically requests input from the public on this issue, including on questions such as:

- How should USDA use programs, funding, financial support, and other authorities, in conjunction with section 22007 financial assistance, to provide support for those who have experienced discrimination under the USDA farm loan programs?

Civil Rights Complaint

Information submitted through this document will not be processed as a civil rights complaint and will not be considered a complaint for determining whether a complaint was timely submitted.

USDA Non-Discrimination Policy

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family or parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (for example, braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the responsible agency or USDA TARGET Center at (202) 720–2600 or 844–433–2774 (toll-free nationwide). Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program discrimination complaint, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD–3027, found online at <https://www.usda.gov/oascr/how-to-file-a-program-discrimination-complaint> and at any USDA office or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632–9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by mail to: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue SW, Washington, DC 20250–9410 or email: OAC@usda.gov.

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.
