November 10, 2022.

I. Introduction

On July 29, 2022, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change SR-FINRA-2022-024 pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4² thereunder to modify the current process relating to the expungement of customer dispute information.³ The proposed rule change was published for public comment in the Federal Register on August 15, 2022.⁴ On September 27, 2022, FINRA consented to an extension of the time period in which the Commission must approve the proposed rule change, disapprove the proposed rule change, or institute proceedings to determine whether to approve or disapprove the proposed rule change to November 11, 2022.⁵ On November 10,

2022, FINRA responded to the comment letters received in response to the Notice and filed an amendment to modify the proposed rule change ("Amendment No. 1").⁶

The Commission is publishing this order pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act⁷ to solicit comments on the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1, and to institute proceedings to determine whether to approve or disapprove the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1.

II. Description of the Proposed Rule Change, as Modified by Amendment No. 1

A. Background

The Central Registration Depository ("CRD") is a licensing and registration system used by the Commission, state securities regulators, and self-regulatory organizations ("SROs") as a source of regulatory information on, among other things, broker-dealers and their associated persons. Certain information on CRD is also released to the public through FINRA's BrokerCheck system.⁸ FINRA stated that it publishes on BrokerCheck extensive disclosure information, including customer dispute information for associated persons who are currently or were formerly registered with FINRA, to help investors make informed choices about the associated persons and broker-dealer firms with whom they may conduct business.⁹

FINRA rules allow broker-dealers and their associated persons to seek expungement of customer dispute information from the CRD and BrokerCheck systems in certain circumstances.¹⁰ An associated person may seek expungement of customer dispute information through the FINRA arbitration process or by going directly to court without first going to arbitration.¹¹

B. The Proposed Rule Change

FINRA is proposing to amend the Code of Arbitration Procedure for Customer Disputes (“Customer Code”) and the Code of Arbitration Procedure for Industry Disputes (“Industry Code”) (together, “Codes”) to modify the current process relating to the expungement of customer dispute information. The proposed rule change would impose requirements on expungement requests: (a) filed by an associated person during an investment-related, customer initiated arbitration (“customer arbitration”), or filed by a party to the customer arbitration on behalf of an associated person (“on-behalf-of request”), or (b) filed by an associated person separate from a customer arbitration (“straight-in request”).¹²

Specifically, the proposed rule change would: (1) require that a straight-in request be decided by a three-person panel that is randomly selected from a roster of experienced public arbitrators with enhanced expungement training;¹³ (2) prohibit parties to a straight-in request from agreeing to fewer than three arbitrators to consider their expungement requests, from striking any of the selected arbitrators, from stipulating to an arbitrator’s removal, or from stipulating to the use of pre-selected arbitrators; (3) provide notification to state securities regulators of all expungement requests and a mechanism for state securities regulators to attend and participate in expungement hearings in straight-in requests; (4) impose time limits on the filing of straight-in requests; (5) codify and update the best practices in the Notice to Arbitrators and Parties on Expanded Expungement Guidance applicable to all expungement hearings, including amendments to establish additional requirements for expungement hearings, to facilitate customer attendance and participation in expungement hearings, and to codify the panel’s¹⁴ ability to request any evidence relevant to the expungement request;¹⁵ (6) require the unanimous agreement of the panel to issue an award containing expungement relief; and (7) establish procedural requirements for filing expungement requests, including for on-behalf-of requests. The proposed rule change would also amend the Customer Code to specify procedures for requesting expungement of customer dispute information during simplified arbitrations.¹⁶

Amendment No. 1 would modify the proposed rule change in three ways. First, it would amend proposed Rules 12805(c)(3)(A) and 13805(c)(3)(A) to state that all customers whose customer arbitrations, civil litigations or customer complaints are a subject of the expungement request are entitled to attend and participate in all aspects of the prehearing conferences and the expungement hearing. Second, it would modify proposed Rules 12805(c)(8)(C) and 13805(c)(9)(C) to state that a panel shall not give any evidentiary weight to a decision by a customer or an authorized representative not to attend or participate in an expungement hearing when making a determination of whether expungement is appropriate. Finally, Amendment No. 1 would modify the proposed rule change to provide that an associated person shall not file a claim requesting expungement of customer dispute information from the CRD system if the customer dispute information is associated with a customer arbitration or civil litigation in which a panel or court of competent jurisdiction previously found the associated person liable.¹⁷

III. Proceedings To Determine Whether To Approve or Disapprove File No. SR-FINRA-2022-024 and Grounds for Disapproval Under Consideration

The Commission is instituting proceedings pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act to determine whether the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1, should be approved or disapproved.¹⁸ Institution of proceedings is appropriate at this time in view of the legal and policy issues raised by the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1. Institution of proceedings does not indicate that the Commission has reached any conclusions with respect to the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1.

¹³ Among other requirements, public arbitrators are not employed in the securities industry and do not devote 20 percent or more of their professional work to the securities industry or to parties in disputes concerning investment accounts or transactions or employment relationships within the financial industry. See FINRA Rules 12100(aa) and 13100(x). Notice at note 3.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act,¹⁹ the Commission is providing notice of the grounds for disapproval under consideration. The Commission is instituting proceedings to allow for additional analysis and input concerning whether the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1, is consistent with the Exchange Act and the rules thereunder.

IV. Request for Written Comments

The Commission requests that interested persons provide written submissions of their views, data, and arguments with respect to the issues identified above, as well as any other concerns they may have with the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1. In particular, the Commission invites the written views of interested persons concerning whether the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1, is consistent with the Exchange Act and the rules thereunder.

Although there do not appear to be any issues relevant to approval or disapproval that would be facilitated by an oral presentation of views, data, and arguments, the Commission will consider, pursuant to Rule 19b-4, any request for an opportunity to make an oral presentation.²⁰

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments regarding whether the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1, should be approved or disapproved by December 7, 2022. Any person who wishes to file a rebuttal to any other person’s submission must file that rebuttal by December 21, 2022.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-96296; File No. SR-
NYSEAMER-2022-51]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; NYSE American LLC; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change To Update and Harmonize the Exchange's Reimbursement Schedule for Forwarding Proxy and Other Issuer Material

November 10, 2022.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on November 4, 2022, NYSE American LLC ("NYSE American" or the "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I and II below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Exchange has designated the proposed rule change as constituting a "non-controversial" rule change under paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 under the Act,³ which renders the proposal effective upon receipt of this filing by the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to amend NYSE American Rules 576, 585, 451—Equities and 465—Equities, and the related provisions of Section 722 of the NYSE American Company Guide (the "Company Guide"), which provide a schedule for the reimbursement of expenses by issuers to NYSE American member organizations for the processing of proxy materials and other issuer communications provided to investors holding securities in street name.⁴ The proposed rule change is available on the Exchange's website at www.nyse.com, at the principal office of the Exchange, and at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

³ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6).

⁴ The Exchange notes that the proposed schedule for the reimbursement of expenses was first adopted by the New York Stock Exchange and FINRA in 2014 and has been applied industry wide since that time, as intended. See, infra, Footnote 5. This rule proposal does not propose any changes to that schedule. Instead, this proposal seeks only to make conforming changes to the Exchange's rules and the Company Guide.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the self-regulatory organization included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of those statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant parts of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and the Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to amend NYSE American Rules 576, 585, 451—Equities and 465—Equities, and the related provisions of Section 722 of the NYSE American Company Guide, which provide a schedule for the reimbursement of expenses by issuers to NYSE American member organizations for the processing of proxy materials and other issuer communications provided to investors holding securities in street name. The proposed amendments to Rules 576, 585, 451—Equities and 465—Equities and Section 722 of the Company Guide will conform NYSE American's reimbursement schedule to one previously adopted by the New York Stock Exchange LLC (the "NYSE").⁵ The NYSE adopted the changes to its reimbursement schedule upon the recommendation of the Proxy Fee Advisory Committee ("PFAC" or the "Committee") which was formed in 2010 to review the then-existing fee structure and report its findings to the NYSE.⁶

The Exchange notes that Rules 576 and 585 duplicate Rules 451—Equities and 465—Equities. Rules 576 and 585 appear in the "Office Rules" section of

⁵ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 70720, October 18, 2013, 78 FR 63530, October 24, 2013, approving SR-NYSE-2013-07 (the "NYSE Approval Order") and Securities Exchange Act Release No. 71273, January 9, 2014, 79 FR 2702, January 15, 2014 (SR-NYSE-2013-83). FINRA has adopted a fee structure identical to the schedule that was adopted by the NYSE. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 71272, January 9, 2014, 79 FR 2741, January 15, 2014 (SR-FINRA-2013-056).

⁶ The NYSE Approval Order contained discussion, and corresponding rule text, related to enhanced brokers' internet platforms. The Exchange is not proposing to adopt the portion of NYSE Rule 451 related to the Enhanced Brokers' internet Platform Fee as that fee expired in 2018 and is no longer relevant.
