

and requirements and (b) enhance outreach efforts, public engagement, meaningful Tribal consultation and participation, targeted outreach to underserved communities, and stakeholder collaboration within the scope of the Committee.

6. Issue preliminary discrete recommendations in sequence with Forest Service NWFP planning timelines.

The Committee is expected to need two years to carry out its objectives. All deliverables will be submitted to the Designated Federal Official (DFO) according to planning schedule needs. The Committee will meet approximately 4 to 6 times annually or as often as necessary and at such times as designated by the DFO. Subcommittees may meet more frequently. Attendance may be in-person, by telephone, or by other electronic means. Meetings of the Committee whether in person, by telephone or electronic means shall be announced 15 calendar days in advance in the Federal Register as required by the FACA.

The Committee will hold open meetings unless the Secretary determines that a meeting or a portion of a meeting should be closed to the public in accordance with subsection C of section 522(b) of title 5, United States Code. All proceedings and relevant documents will be posted and made accessible to the public. No individual who is currently registered as a federal lobbyist is eligible to serve as a member of the Committee.

Overview and Memberships

The committee will be comprised of 20 members approved by the Secretary of Agriculture with each member serving a two-year term. The Committee membership will be balanced in terms of the points of view represented and functions to be performed. Members of the Committee will serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for travel expenses while performing duties on behalf of the Committee, subject to approval by the DFO and the Department. The Committee should represent to the extent possible, a balance across the three states covered by the NWFP (Oregon, Washington, California) and reflect the demographic diversity of the NWFP area. The Committee shall include representation from experts in the following interest areas:

(1) Science: Up to 9 members who represent the scientific community, and have an understanding in the following disciplines and how they relate to the NWFP area:

(b) Vegetation management
(c) Fire ecology
(d) Terrestrial wildlife ecology
(e) Aquatic and riparian ecosystems and species

(f) Climate change

(e) Social science

(g) Adaptive management and planning

(h) Indigenous traditional ecological knowledge (ITEK) practitioners.

(2) Organizations: Up to 7 members who represent a broad array of organizations with an interest in NWFP forests:

(a) National, regional, or local conservation organizations with staff and active programs in the Pacific Northwest

(b) Forest products industry

(c) Recreation organization

(d) Organization involved in outreach with underserved communities

(e) Forest collaborative groups

(f) Wildlife organization

(g) Watershed organization.

(3) Government and public: Up to 4 members who represent governmental entities or the public at-large:

(a) Member of the affected public at large

(b) Represent state governments

(c) Represent counties

(d) Represent American Indian Tribes.

Nomination and Application Information

The appointment of members to the Committee will be made by the Secretary of Agriculture. Any individual or organization may nominate one or more qualified persons to serve on the Federal Advisory Committee for sustainable, climate-adapted, wildfire-resilient landscapes across the Northwest Forest Plan Area. Individuals may also nominate themselves. To be considered for membership, nominees must submit a:

1. Cover letter identifying what interest area group(s) listed above the nominee would represent, how they are qualified to represent that interest group, and why they want to serve on the Committee.

2. Three references that may be contacted about the nominee's application.

3. A resume describing in detail the nominee's qualifications for membership to the Committee.

4. A completed form AD-755, Advisory Committee Membership Background Information. The form AD-755 may be obtained from the Forest Service contact person or from the following website: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/ad-755.pdf>.

5. Letters of recommendation are welcome. All nominations will be vetted by the Agency and the Secretary of Agriculture will appoint committee members from the list of qualified applicants. Members serve at the pleasure of the Secretary.

Submit nominations and applications to the addressee listed in this notice.

Foreign-Trade Zones Board

[B-50-2022]

Foreign-Trade Zone (FTZ) 196—Fort Worth, Texas; Notification of Proposed Production Activity; Prairie Industries Holdings, Inc. DBA Truvant (Construction Toy Sets); Haslet, Texas

Prairie Industries Holdings, Inc. DBA Truvant submitted a notification of proposed production activity to the FTZ Board (the Board) for its facility in Haslet, Texas within FTZ 196. The notification conforming to the requirements of the Board's regulations (15 CFR 400.22) was received on November 10, 2022.

Pursuant to 15 CFR 400.14(b), FTZ production activity would be limited to the specific foreign-status material(s)/ component(s) and specific finished product(s) described in the submitted notification (summarized below) and subsequently authorized by the Board. The benefits that may stem from conducting production activity under FTZ procedures are explained in the background section of the Board's website—accessible via www.trade.gov/ftz.

The proposed finished products are LEGO® construction toy sets (duty rate is duty-free).

The proposed foreign-status materials and components include: packaging components (decorative plastic ribbons; laminated packaging sheeting; paper liners; tissue wrapping paper; corrugated and non-corrugated folding cartons; rigid paperboard boxes; printed labels; molded paper pulp containers; paper pulp trays; printed gift cards); toy set components (auto-adhesive stickers; electric motors; alkaline batteries; radio remote controls; motion sensor switches); packaging insert components (building instructions; advertising material catalogs); and, plastic, molded, interlocking bricks of various colors (duty rate ranges from duty-free to 6.7%). The request indicates that certain materials/components are subject to duties under Section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974 (Section 301), depending on the country of origin. The applicable Section 301 decisions require subject merchandise to be admitted to FTZs in privileged foreign status (19 CFR 146.41).

Public comment is invited from interested parties. Submissions shall be addressed to the Board's Executive Secretary and sent to: ftz@trade.gov. The closing period for their receipt is December 28, 2022.

A copy of the notification will be available for public inspection in the "Online FTZ Information System" section of the Board's website.

For further information, contact Juanita Chen at juanita.chen@trade.gov.

Dated: November 14, 2022.

Andrew McGilvray,
Executive Secretary.

Bureau of Industry and Security

Agency Information Collection Activities; Submission to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for Review and Approval; Comment Request; Voluntary Self-Disclosure of Violations of the EAR

AGENCY: Bureau of Industry and Security, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of information collection, request for comment.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce, in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA), invites the general public and other Federal agencies to comment on proposed, and continuing information collections, which helps us assess the impact of our information collection requirements and minimize the public's reporting burden. The purpose of this notice is to allow for 60 days of public comment preceding submission of the collection to OMB.

DATES: To ensure consideration, comments regarding this proposed information collection must be received on or before January 17, 2023.

ADDRESSES: Interested persons are invited to submit comments by email to Mark Grace, IC Liaison, Bureau of Industry and Security, at mark.grace@bis.doc.gov or to PRAComments@doc.gov. Please reference OMB Control Number 0694-0058 in the subject line of your comments. Do not submit Confidential Business Information or otherwise sensitive or protected information.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Requests for additional information or specific questions related to collection activities should be directed to Mark Grace, IC Liaison, Bureau of Industry and Security, phone 202-482-8093 or by email at mark.grace@bis.doc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

This collection of information is needed to detect violations of the Export Administration Act and Regulations and determine if an investigation or prosecution is necessary and to reach a settlement with violators. Voluntary self-disclosure of EAR violations strengthens BIS's enforcement efforts by allowing BIS to conduct investigations of the disclosed incidents faster than would be the case if BIS had to detect the violations without such disclosures. BIS evaluates the seriousness of the violation and either (1) Informs the person making the disclosure that no
