SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On September 13, 2022, Commerce published in the Federal Register the Preliminary Determination.<sup>1</sup> We invited interested parties to comment on the Preliminary Determination. We received comments on the Preliminary Determination from the European Commission<sup>2</sup> and Giorgio Foods, Inc. (the petitioner), a domestic producer of preserved mushrooms.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>2</sup> See European Commission's Letter, "Comment on the Preliminary Determination Regarding the Antidumping Duty Investigation on Preserved Mushrooms from France (A–427–833)," dated October 11, 2022 (European Commission Comments).

<sup>3</sup> See Petitioner's Letter, "Less Than Fair Value Investigation of Certain Preserved Mushrooms from France—Petitioner's Comments in Lieu of Case Brief," dated October 13, 2022 (Petitioner's Comments).

Period of Investigation

The period of investigation is January 1, 2021, through December 31, 2021.

Scope of the Investigation

The products covered by this investigation are preserved mushrooms from France. For a full description of the scope of this investigation, see Appendix I.

Analysis of Comments Received

The sole issue raised in comments that were submitted by parties in this investigation is addressed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum.<sup>4</sup> A list of the issues addressed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum is attached to this notice at Appendix II. The Issues and Decision Memorandum is a public document and is on file electronically via Enforcement and Compliance's Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (ACCESS). ACCESS is available to registered users at <https://access.trade.gov>. In addition, a complete version of the Issues and Decision Memorandum can be accessed directly at <https://access.trade.gov/public/FRNoticesListLayout.aspx>.

Use of Adverse Facts Available

As discussed in the Preliminary Determination, Commerce assigned to the mandatory respondents in this investigation, Bonduelle Europe Long Life and France Champignon, estimated weighted-average dumping margins on the basis of adverse facts available (AFA), pursuant to sections 776(a) and (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act).<sup>5</sup> There is no new information on the record that would cause us to revisit our decision in the Preliminary Determination. Accordingly, for this final determination, we continue to find that the application of AFA pursuant to sections 776(a) and (b) of the Act is warranted with respect to Bonduelle Europe Long Life and France Champignon. In applying AFA, we are assigning Bonduelle Europe Long Life and France Champignon the highest margin identified in the petition, 360.88 percent.

Changes Since the Preliminary Determination

Based on the analysis of comments received, we made no changes for the final determination.
