

or Severely Disabled is an independent government agency operating as the U.S. AbilityOne Commission. It oversees the AbilityOne Program, which provides employment opportunities through Federal contracts for people who are blind or have significant disabilities in the manufacture and delivery of products and services to the Federal Government. The Javits-Wagner-O'Day Act (41 U.S.C. Chapter 85) authorizes the contracts.

Registration: Attendees not requesting speaking time must register not later than 11:59 p.m. ET on January 30, 2023. Attendees requesting speaking time should register not later than 11:59 p.m. ET on January 19, 2023, and use the comment fields in the registration form to specify the intended speaking topic/s. The registration link will be posted on the Commission's home page, www.abilityone.gov, not later than January 4, 2023.

Commission Statement: This regular quarterly public meeting will include updates from the Commission Chairperson, Executive Director, and Inspector General. A panel of Federal customers will broadly address, from an overall acquisition perspective, what is important to Federal agencies in terms of contractor performance—whether or not those contracts are awarded under the auspices of the AbilityOne Program. Panelist topics may include but are not limited to quality, timely delivery, best value, innovation, and compliance with cybersecurity and other Federal guidance.

Public Participation: The Commission invites public comments and suggestions about the panel topic, including perspectives on contract performance, quality assurance, and measurement of customer satisfaction. During registration, you may choose to submit comments, or you may request speaking time at the meeting. The Commission may invite some attendees who submit advance comments to discuss their comments during the meeting. Comments submitted will be reviewed by staff and the Commission members before the meeting. Comments posted in the chat box during the meeting will be shared with the Commission members after the meeting. The Commission is not subject to the requirements of 5 U.S.C. 552(b); however, the Commission published this notice to encourage the broadest possible participation in its meeting.

Personal Information: Do not include any information that you do not want publicly disclosed.

Michael R. Jurkowski,

Acting Director, Business Operations.

BUREAU OF CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION

[Docket No. CFPB-2022-0085]

Agency Information Collection Activities: Comment Request

AGENCY: Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection.

ACTION: Notice and request for comment.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA), the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (Bureau or CFPB) requests the revision of the Office of Management and Budget's (OMB's) approval of an existing information collection titled "Evaluation of Financial Empowerment Training Program" approved under OMB Control Number 3170-0067.

DATES: Written comments are encouraged and must be received on or before February 21, 2023 to be assured of consideration.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by the title of the information collection, OMB Control Number (see below), and docket number (see above), by any of the following methods:

- Federal eRulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the instructions for submitting comments.

- Email: PRA_Comments@cfpb.gov. Include Docket No. CFPB-2022-0085 in the subject line of the email.

- Mail/Hand Delivery/Courier: Comment Intake, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (Attention: PRA Office), 1700 G Street NW, Washington, DC 20552. Because paper mail in the Washington, DC area and at the Bureau is subject to delay, commenters are encouraged to submit comments electronically.

Please note that comments submitted after the comment period will not be accepted. In general, all comments received will become public records, including any personal information provided. Sensitive personal information, such as account numbers or Social Security numbers, should not be included.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Requests for additional information should be directed to Anthony May, PRA Officer, at (202) 435-7278, or email: CFPB_PRA@cfpb.gov. If you require this document in an alternative electronic format, please contact CFPB_Accessibility@cfpb.gov. Please do not submit comments to these email boxes.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title of Collection: Evaluation of Financial Empowerment Training Program.

OMB Control Number: 3170-0067.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Private sector.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 5,300.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 1,274.

Abstract: The Bureau's Office of Community Affairs (OCA) is responsible for developing strategies to improve the financial capability of low-income and economically vulnerable consumers, such as consumers who are unbanked or underbanked, those with thin or no credit file, and households with limited savings. To address the needs of these consumers, OCA has developed Your Money, Your Goals, a suite of financial empowerment materials with an accompanying training program. These resources equip frontline staff and volunteers in a range of organizations to provide relevant and effective information, tools, and resources designed to improve the financial outcomes and capability of these consumers. The collection focuses on evaluating Your Money, Your Goals virtual and in-person training practices in enhancing the ability of frontline staff and volunteers to inform low-income consumers about rights and options for managing their finances and how to prevent and address consumer harm.

Request for Comments: Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Bureau, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) The accuracy of the Bureau's estimate of the burden of the collection of information, including the validity of the methods and the assumptions used; (c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and/or included in the request for OMB's approval. All comments will become a matter of public record.

Anthony May,

Paperwork Reduction Act Officer, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

Office of the Secretary

[Docket ID DoD-2022-OS-0140]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel & Readiness (USD(P&R)), Department of Defense (DoD).

ACTION: Notice of a modified system of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the DoD is modifying and reissuing a current system of records originally titled, "Military OneSource Case Management System (CMS)," DPR 45, which is being renamed as "Military OneSource Business Operations Information System". This system of records was originally established by the USD(P&R) to collect and maintain records in the Military OneSource Case Management of individuals' eligibility for support as well as processing training registration, enrollment, requests, and self-motivated education/training for its Learning Management System. The Military OneSource is a call center and website providing comprehensive information on available benefits and services to Active Duty Military, Reserve and National Guard, eligible separated members and their family members. These benefits and services include financial counseling, educational assistance and benefits, relocation planning and preparation, quality of life programs, and family and community programs. In addition to formatting administrative changes, this modification changes the categories of individuals, categories of records, the system location, system manager, authorities, record source categories, policy and practices for storage, record access, contesting and notification procedures, as well as the routine uses within the SORN.

DATES: This system of records modification is effective upon publication; however, comments on the Routine Uses will be accepted on or before January 20, 2023. The Routine Uses are effective at the close of the comment period.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by docket number and title, by either of the following methods:

* Federal Rulemaking Portal: <https://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the instructions for submitting comments.

* Mail: Department of Defense, Office of the Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Privacy, Civil Liberties, and Transparency, Regulatory Directorate, 4800 Mark Center Drive, Attn: Mailbox 24, Suite 08D09, Alexandria, VA 22350-1700.

Instructions: All submissions received must include the agency name and docket number for this Federal Register document. The general policy for comments and other submissions from members of the public is to make these submissions available for public viewing on the internet at <https://www.regulations.gov> as they are received without change, including any personal identifiers or contact information.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ms. Rahwa Keleta, Defense Privacy and Civil Liberties Division, Directorate for Privacy, Civil Liberties and Freedom of Information, Office of the Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Privacy, Civil Liberties, and Transparency, Department of Defense, 4800 Mark Center Drive, Mailbox #24, Suite 08D09, Alexandria, VA 22350-1700; OSD.DPCLTD@mail.mil; (703) 571-0070.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Military OneSource system of records provides service members and their families with access to a wide variety of resources and confidential support in order to weather the demands of military life. In an increasingly technological and mobile world, the Military OneSource offers support 24 hours a day, telephonically as well as online. Subject to public comment, the DoD is updating this SORN to add the standard DoD routine uses (routine uses A through J). Additionally, the following sections of this SORN are being modified as follows: system and number to support the integration of the Military OneSource Case Management System (CMS) into the larger Military OneSource Business Operations Information System technological environment; system location in order to expand the operating environments in support of the Military OneSource Business Operations Information System; system manager to support the dual-designation Military OneSource system manager responsibilities in support of the Military OneSource Business Operations Information System; authorities to include the addition of public law citations and National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) authorities; the purpose to improve clarity; categories of individuals in order to incorporate those who have been determined, by DoD policy, to be eligible for the web-based services and capabilities; categories of records in order to improve clarity; record sources section incorporates formatting edits; policies and practices for storage to account for the use of Government-validated Cloud Computing environments; safeguards in order to describe additional measures that are employed in support of the Military One Source Business Operations Information System; record access procedures in order to improve clarity; contesting procedures to ensure the correct citation is listed for accessing records, contesting content, and appealing initial agency determinations; notification procedures in order to add clarity.

DoD SORNs have been published in the Federal Register and are available from the address in FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT or at the Office of the Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Privacy, Civil Liberties, and Transparency (OATSD(PCLT)) website at <https://dpcltd.defense.gov/privacy>.

II. Privacy Act

Under the Privacy Act, a "system of records" is a group of records under the control of an agency from which information is retrieved by the name of an individual or by some identifying number, symbol, or other identifying
