[Public Notice 11996]

Review of the Designations as Foreign Terrorist Organizations of Tehrik-e Taliban Pakistan, Hizbul Mujahideen, and Army of Islam (and Other Aliases)

Based on a review of the Administrative Records assembled pursuant to Section 219(a)(4)(C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, amended (8 U.S.C. 1189(a)(4)(C)) (“INA”), and in consultation with the Attorney General and the Secretary of the Treasury, I conclude that the circumstances that were the bases for the designations of the aforementioned organizations as Foreign Terrorist Organizations have not changed in such a manner as to warrant revocation of the designations and that the national security of the United States does not warrant a revocation of the designations.

Therefore, I hereby determine that the designations of the aforementioned organizations as Foreign Terrorist Organizations, pursuant to Section 219 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1189), shall be maintained.

This determination shall be published in the Federal Register.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Article 10.12 of the USMCA establishes a mechanism for replacing judicial review of final antidumping and countervailing duty determinations involving imports from Canada, Mexico or the United States with review by independent binational panels. If requested, these panels will review final determinations to determine whether they are consistent with the antidumping or countervailing duty law of the importing country.

Annex 10–B.3 of the USMCA establishes a mechanism for the formation of an extraordinary challenge committee to review the appeal of Article 10.12 panel decisions under certain circumstances described in Article 10.12.13 of the USMCA. Article 10.13 of the USMCA establishes a mechanism for special committees to review certain procedural allegations described in Article 10.13.1 of the USMCA. Section 504 of the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement Implementation Act, Public Law 116–113, 134 Stat. 11, amended United States law to implement Chapter Ten of the USMCA. See, e.g., 19 U.S.C. 4581 et. seq.; see also 19 CFR 356.1 et seq.

The USMCA Rules of Procedure for Article 10.12, Annex 10–B.3, and Article 10.13 are intended to give effect to the provisions of Chapter Ten of the USMCA by setting forth the procedures for commencing, conducting, and completing reviews. These rules are the result of negotiations among Canada, Mexico, and the United States in compliance with the terms of the USMCA, and are derived in large part from the rules established under Chapter 19 of the North American Free Trade Agreement. The English versions of the rules of procedure under Article 10.12 (Binational Panel Reviews) and

²⁵ 17 CFR 200.30–3(a)(12).

Article 10.13 (Special Committees) were adopted under Decision No. 2 of the Free Trade Commission, with French and Spanish versions adopted under Decision No. 4 of the Free Trade Commission. The English, French, and Spanish versions of the rules of procedure under Annex 10–B.3 (Extraordinary Challenge Committees) were adopted under Decision No. 4 of the Free Trade Commission.

The USMCA Article 10.12, Annex 10–B.3, and Article 10.13 rules are reproduced in the annex to this notice. These rules are also available at: <https://can-mex-usa-sec.org/>.

68. If a panel chooses to hear oral argument or, pursuant to subrule 67(2), directs that a motion be heard by means of a telephone or video conference call with the participants, the responsible Secretary shall, at the direction of the chair, fix a date, time and place for the hearing of the motion and shall notify all participants of the same.

(2) If, on remand, the investigating authority has supplemented the administrative record,

(a) the investigating authority shall file, physically or electronically, with the responsible Secretariat an Index listing each item in the supplementary remand record, together with proof of service of the Index on the counsel of record of each of the participants, or if a participant is not represented by counsel, on the participant, and one copy of each non-privileged item listed in that Index, no later than five days after the date on which the investigating authority filed the Determination on Remand with the panel;

(b) any participant who intends to challenge the Determination on Remand shall file a written submission with respect to the Determination on Remand no later than 20 days after the date on which the investigating authority filed the Index and supplementary remand record; and

(5) If no written submissions are filed under subrule (2)(b) or (3)(a) within the time periods established by these Rules, and if no motion pursuant to Rule 25 is pending, the panel shall, within no later than 10 days after the later of the due date for those written submissions and the date of the denial of a motion pursuant to Rule 25, issue an order affirming the investigating authority's Determination on Remand.

(6) If a Determination on Remand is challenged, the panel shall issue a written decision pursuant to subrule 76(1), either affirming the Determination on Remand or remanding it to the investigating authority, no later than 90 days after the Determination on Remand is filed.

78. In setting the date by which a Determination on Remand shall be due from the investigating authority, the panel shall take into account, among other factors,

(a) the date that any Determination on Remand with respect to the same goods is due from the other investigating authority; and

(b) the effect the Determination on Remand from the other investigating authority might have on the deliberations of the investigating authority with respect to the making of a final Determination on Remand.
