

occupational exposure to the carcinogen lead. Employers must monitor exposure to lead, provide medical surveillance, train employees about the hazards of lead, and establish and maintain accurate records of worker exposure to lead. These records are used by employers, workers, physicians, and the Government to ensure that workers are not being harmed by exposure to lead. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on December 09, 2022 (87 FR 75666).

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless the OMB approves it and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid OMB Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

DOL seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal. The DOL notes that information collection requirements submitted to the OMB for existing ICRs receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review.

LEGAL SERVICES CORPORATION

Legal Services Corporation Technology Baselines; Request for Comments

AGENCY: Legal Services Corporation.

ACTION: Request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Legal Services Corporation (LSC) seeks public comment on draft revisions to its Technology Baselines: Technologies that Should Be in Place in a Legal Office Today (Baselines). The Baselines address the use of technology in providing high-quality legal services to clients. They provide guidance for LSC grantees and a resource for LSC during reviews of grantees' program quality. They are not minimum requirements. LSC last updated the Baselines in 2015.

DATES: April 21, 2023, at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time is the deadline for all comments to be submitted to LSC. LSC will not consider comments submitted after the deadline.

ADDRESSES: Comments must be submitted as follows:

- Acrobat PDF format.
- Emailed as an attachment to a transmittal message sent to: techgrants@lsc.gov.
- Emailed with the subject line: Comments on Technology Baselines.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Questions should be sent to techgrants@lsc.gov with the subject line: Questions about Technology Baselines Comments. Questions about this notice can be sent to Mark Freedman, Senior Associate General Counsel, 202-295-1623.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Legal Services Corporation (LSC) seeks comment on draft revisions to its Technology Baselines: Technologies that Should Be in Place in a Legal Office Today (Baselines). The draft revisions are posted online at: www.lsc.gov/matters-comment. LSC will also host a webinar regarding these draft revisions on March 29, 2023. Information about the webinar will also be posted at www.lsc.gov/matters-comment.

LSC first adopted the Baselines in 2008 and revised them in 2015. The Baselines address the use of technology in providing high-quality legal services to clients. They set out the technology capacities that LSC grantees should have in place or have available to them through a vendor or a partner. They also serve as a resource for LSC during reviews of grantees' program quality. They are not minimum requirements.

The draft revisions reflect the significant changes in the way legal services are delivered because of the COVID-19 pandemic as well as the growth in cybersecurity threats since 2015. They include consideration of remote/hybrid work environments, cloud computing and policies, new security baselines for networks and data, document management strategies, social media policy, and the use of web and video conferencing systems. A summary of significant updates by section can be found in the draft document.

LSC issues this notice pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 2996g(e).

Dated: March 15, 2023.

Mark Freedman,

Senior Associate General Counsel.
