Tin Mill Products From the People's Republic of China: Postponement of Preliminary Determination in the Countervailing Duty Investigation

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

DATES: Applicable March 24, 2023.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Genevieve Coen or Melissa Porpotage, AD/CVD Operations, Office II, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–3251 or (202) 482–1413, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On February 7, 2023, the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) initiated a countervailing duty (CVD) investigation of imports of tin mill products from the People's Republic of China (China).¹ Currently, the preliminary determination is due no later than April 13, 2023.

Postponement of Preliminary Determination

Section 703(b)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act) requires Commerce to issue the preliminary determination in a CVD investigation within 65 days after the date on which Commerce initiated the investigation. However, section 703(c)(1) of the Act permits Commerce to postpone the preliminary determination until no later than 130 days after the date on which Commerce initiated the investigation if: (A) the petitioner makes a timely request for a postponement; or (B) Commerce concludes that the parties concerned are cooperating, that the investigation is extraordinarily complicated, and that additional time is necessary to make a preliminary determination. Under 19 CFR 351.205(e), the petitioner must submit a request for postponement 25 days or more before the scheduled date of the preliminary determination and must state the reasons for the request. Commerce will grant the request unless it finds compelling reasons to deny it.

On March 17, 2023, the petitioners submitted a timely request that

Commerce postpone the preliminary CVD determination.² The petitioners stated that additional time is needed to collect the necessary information for the preliminary determination.³

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.205(e), the petitioners have stated the reasons for requesting a postponement of the preliminary determination, and Commerce finds no compelling reason to deny the request. Therefore, in accordance with section 703(c)(1)(A) of the Act, Commerce is postponing the deadline for the preliminary determination to no later than 130 days after the date on which this investigation was initiated, i.e., June 20, 2023.⁴ Pursuant to section 705(a)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.210(b)(1), the deadline for the final determination of this investigation will continue to be 75 days after the date of the preliminary determination.

This notice is issued and published pursuant to section 703(c)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.205(f)(1).

Dated: March 20, 2023.

Lisa W. Wang,

Assistant Secretary for Enforcement and Compliance.

White Grape Juice Concentrate From Argentina: Suspension of Antidumping Duty Investigation

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) has suspended the antidumping duty investigation on white grape juice concentrate (WGJC) from Argentina. The basis for this action is an agreement between Commerce and

⁴ Postponing the preliminary determination to 130 days after initiation would place the deadline on Saturday, June 17, 2023, and the following Monday, June 19, 2023 is a Federal holiday. Commerce's practice dictates that where a deadline falls on a weekend or federal holiday, the appropriate deadline is the next business day. signatory producers/exporters accounting for substantially all imports of WGJC from Argentina, wherein each signatory producer/exporter has agreed to revise its prices to eliminate completely the injurious effects of exports of the subject merchandise to the United States.

DATES: Applicable March 17, 2023.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Sally C. Gannon or David Cordell, Bilateral Agreements Unit, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-0162 or (202) 482-0408, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On April 20, 2022, Commerce initiated an antidumping duty investigation under section 732 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), to determine whether imports of WGCJ from Argentina are being, or are likely to be, sold in the United States at less than fair value (LTFV).¹ On May 16, 2022, the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) notified Commerce of its affirmative preliminary injury determination. On November 3, 2022, Commerce preliminarily determined that WGCJ from Argentina is being, or is likely to be, sold in the United States at LTFV, as provided in section 733 of the Act, and postponed the final determination in the investigation until no later than 135 days after the date of publication of the Preliminary Determination in the Federal Register.²

On December 21, 2022, Commerce issued a letter that formally opened consultations with Federación de Cooperativas Vitivinícolas Argentinas Coop. Ltda (Fecovita) and any other producers/exporters of WGJC from Argentina with respect to a possible antidumping duty suspension agreement under section 734(c) of the Act.³ Since that time, Commerce has continued to negotiate with representatives of the Argentine producers/exporters and, in parallel, has continually consulted with the petitioner, Delano Growers Grape Products.

On February 13, 2023, Commerce and representatives of certain producers/exporters initiated a proposed agreement to suspend the antidumping duty investigation on WGJC from Argentina. Consistent with section 734(e) of the Act, Commerce notified the petitioner and the other parties, released the initialed draft agreement to the interested parties, and invited interested parties to provide written comments on the draft suspension agreement by no later than the close of business on March 13, 2023.⁴ Consistent with 734(e)(1) of the Act, Commerce consulted with the petitioner concerning its intention to suspend the antidumping duty investigation on WGJC from Argentina. Commerce also notified the ITC of the proposed agreement,⁵ consistent with 734(e)(1) of the Act, and released a draft statutory memorandum explaining how the agreement will be implemented and enforced, and how the agreement will meet the applicable statutory requirements, consistent with section 734(e)(2) of the Act.⁶ Commerce received comments from the petitioner and the mandatory respondents, Fecovita and Cepas Argentinas S.A. (Cepas), by the March 13, 2023, deadline.⁷

On March 17, 2023, Commerce and representatives of the signatory producers/exporters accounting for substantially all imports of WGJC from Argentina signed the Agreement Suspending the Antidumping Duty Investigation on White Grape Juice Concentrate from Argentina (AD Agreement), attached hereto.
