[Public Notice 12027]

2021 Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act Annual Report

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice contains the text of the report required by the Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act, as submitted by the Secretary of State.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Andrew Self, Email: SelfAH@state.gov, Phone: (202) 412-3586.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On December 10, 2021, the Secretary of State approved the following report pursuant to the Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act (Pub. L. 114-328, Title XII, Subtitle F) (“the Act”), which is implemented and built upon by E.O. 13818 of December 20, 2017, “Executive Order Blocking the Property of Persons Involved in Serious Human Rights Abuse or Corruption” (E.O. 13818). The text of the report follows:

Pursuant to Section 1264 of the Act, and in accordance with E.O. 13818, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, submits this report to detail the Administration’s implementation of the Act in the 2021 reporting period.

In 2021, the United States took significant action under the Global Magnitsky sanctions program (“Global Magnitsky”), designating 176 foreign persons over the course of the year. As of December 10, 2021, the United States has designated a total of 415 foreign persons (individuals and entities) pursuant to E.O. 13818. This sanctions program, which targets those engaged in serious human rights abuse, corrupt actors, and their enablers, represents the best of the United States’ values by taking impactful steps to promote respect for human rights and combat corruption around the world. Through the Act and E.O. 13818, the United States has sought to disrupt and deter serious human rights abuse and corruption abroad; promote accountability for those who act with impunity; and protect and promote longstanding international norms alongside our partners and allies.

As the President outlined in his Interim National Security Strategy (NSS), the United States will stand with our allies and partners to combat new threats aimed at our democracies. The Administration will take special aim at confronting corruption, which rots democracy from the inside, impedes development, and is increasingly weaponized by authoritarian states to undermine democratic institutions. The United States will defend and protect human rights; address discrimination, inequity, and marginalization in all its forms; and stand up for democracy, human rights, and human dignity. On all these issues, the United States will work to forge a common approach with likeminded countries. Through implementation of the Global Magnitsky sanctions program, the Administration is taking action to execute the President’s vision as described in the Interim NSS.

On June 3, 2021, the President issued a Memorandum on Establishing the Fight Against Corruption as a Core United States National Security Interest. This Memorandum states that corruption threatens United States national security, economic equity, global anti-poverty and development efforts, and democracy itself. It directs action to bolster the U.S. government to hold accountable corrupt individuals and their facilitators, including by, and where appropriate, identifying, freezing, and recovering stolen assets through sanctions or other authorities; to bolster the capacity of domestic and international institutions and multilateral bodies focused on establishing global anti-corruption norms; and work with international partners to counteract strategic corruption by foreign leaders, foreign state-owned or affiliated enterprises, and other foreign actors and their domestic collaborators. The Global Magnitsky program and cooperation with like-minded international partners directly address each of these objectives.

Actions taken in 2021 continue to demonstrate the reach, flexibility, and broad scope of Global Magnitsky. The United States responded to serious human rights abuse and corruption globally, deterring and disrupting some of the most egregious behavior by foreign actors. These actions targeted, among others, oligarchs engaged in public corruption in Bulgaria, corrupt politicians undermining the rule of law in Central America, and officials connected to serious human rights abuse against members of the Uyghur community in the People’s Republic of China’s Xinjiang province. These designations clearly demonstrate the Administration’s resolve to leverage this important tool judiciously and to strategic effect.

When considering economic sanctions under Global Magnitsky, the United States prioritizes actions that are expected to produce a tangible and significant impact on the sanctioned persons and their affiliates and prompt changes in behavior or disrupt the activities of malign actors. Persons sanctioned pursuant to this authority appear on the Office of Foreign Assets Control’s (OFAC’s) List of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons (SDN List). As a result of these actions, all property and interests in property of the sanctioned persons that are in the United States or in the possession or control of U.S. persons, are blocked and must be reported to OFAC. Unless authorized by a general or specific license issued by OFAC or otherwise exempt, OFAC’s regulations generally prohibit all transactions by U.S. persons or within (or transiting) the United States that involve any property or interests in property of designated or otherwise blocked persons. The prohibitions include the making of any contribution or provision of funds, goods, or services by, to, or for the benefit of any blocked person or the receipt of any contribution or provision of funds, goods or services from any such person. In 2021, the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, imposed financial sanctions on the following persons 176 persons and entities pursuant to E.O. 13818:

1. Falih al-Fayyadh: Al-Fayyadh was designated on January 8, 2021, for being a foreign person who is a leader or official of an entity that has engaged in, or whose members have engaged in, serious human rights abuse, relating to the leader’s or official’s tenure. Al-Fayyadh is the Iraqi Popular Mobilization Committee (PMC) Chairman and former National Security Advisor. Al-Fayyadh was the head of the PMC when many of its subcomponents fired live ammunition at peaceful protesters in late 2019, resulting in the death of hundreds of Iraqis. Al-Fayyadh was part of a crisis cell comprised primarily of Popular Mobilization Forces (PMF) militia leaders formed in late 2019 to suppress the Iraqi protests with the support of Iran’s Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps-Qods Force, which was designated pursuant to E.O. 13224 on October 25, 2007.
