SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title; Associated Form; and OMB Number: Policy Pulse Survey; OMB Control Number 0704-0570.

Needs and Uses: The Office of the Secretary of Defense for Policy (OSD-P) Pulse Survey, is necessary to obtain and record responses from government and contractor personnel employed within the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy and its components. The survey is used to assess the progress of the current human capital strategy and to capture emerging human capital and training issues per instructions of the Undersecretary of Defense for Policy. Primary authority to conduct this survey is the OUSD-P Charter USDP 5111.01 June 23, 2020, Section 4, Paragraph (i) 2: "Obtain reports, information, advice, and assistance, consistent with DoD Directive 8910.01 (reference (g)), as necessary to carry out assigned functions." The DoD Directive 8910.01 was reissued as DoDI 8910.1. In Chapter 2, Section 3 of DoDI 8910.01, the instruction states that it applies to, "the collection of information to satisfy statutory and interagency requirements and those in support of all management functions".

Affected Public: Individuals or households.

Annual Burden Hours: 274.89.

Number of Respondents: 833.

Responses per Respondent: 1.

Annual Responses: 833.

Average Burden per Response: 0.33 hours.

Frequency: Annually.

The Leadership and Organizational Development Office (LOD) administers the Pulse Survey to OSD-Policy employees exclusively via an anonymous, web-based questionnaire. The survey is available to the entire OSD-Policy workforce, including civilians, military, detailees, and contractors. OSD-P employee participation will provide insight into OSD-P organizational culture and climate, and identify areas of improvement for human capital initiatives.

This questionnaire is hosted on the intranet SharePoint site used by OSD-P and is only accessible to OSD-P employees. Employees are notified by email when the survey is accessible. Each respondent is asked 33 questions covering training, leadership behavior, professional development, and working environment. The responses are anonymous. The only identifying information supplied by the respondents is their affiliation: what office they belong to, how long they have worked for Policy, and what category of employee they are (e.g. GS civilian, military, detailee, etc.).
