INTER-AMERICAN FOUNDATION

60-Day Notice for the “Candidate Survey”

AGENCY: Inter-American Foundation.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Inter-American Foundation (IAF), as part of its continuing efforts to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. This program helps ensure that requested data is provided in the desired format; reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized; collection instruments are clearly understood; and the impact of collection requirements on respondents is properly assessed. Currently, the IAF is soliciting comments concerning the information collection of the candidate experience when applying to positions at the IAF. The purpose of this survey is to give candidates the opportunity to provide feedback on where they found the job posting and their experience in the application and interview process. This will inform the IAF on ways to improve the recruitment and hiring process.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the address section below within 60 days from the date of this publication in the Federal Register.

ADDRESSES: Send comments to Natalia Mandrus, Inter-American Foundation, via email to nmandrus@iaf.gov, and Nicole Stinson, Inter-American Foundation via email to nstinson@iaf.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The IAF is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Can help the agency minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Nicole Stinson,

Associate General Counsel.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Public Affairs Officer Philip Oviatt, email: poviatt@blm.gov or telephone: (661) 342-4252. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services. Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Topics for the RAC meetings are as follows: On June 14, 2023, the RAC will tour the Merced River Recreation Management Area that may be affected by potential fee increases under consideration. On June 15, 2023, the RAC will be briefed on a business plan being developed with potential fee increases at sites within the jurisdiction of the Mother Lode Field Office, which would require recommendations from the RAC. The RAC will also hear reports from the district and field offices. On Sept. 12, 2023, the RAC will tour Case Mountain Extensive Recreation Management Area to view the progress made since its inception. On Sept. 13, 2023, the RAC will hear about the Case Mountain Forest Health Project and its progress and trajectory toward completion. The RAC will also be briefed on projects from the district and field offices, including a wildland fire update. On Nov. 14, 2023, the RAC will tour the Berryessa Snow Mountain National Monument to view components of the management plan under development. On Nov. 15, 2023, the RAC will be briefed on the progress of the Berryessa Snow Mountain National Monument Management Plan and determine how it will continue to participate in the process. In addition, the RAC will hear reports from the district and field offices. On Feb. 27, 2024, the RAC will tour the Cotoni-Coast Dairies unit to see the updates made under the management plan. On Feb. 28, 2024, the RAC will discuss implementation of the management plan for the Cotoni-Coast Dairies unit of the California Coastal Monument, which has had its original plan modified due to changing conditions within the unit. The RAC will also hear reports from the district and field offices, including a post-season wildland fire assessment, and schedule additional meeting dates for 2024.

All meetings are open to the public. Each formal RAC meeting will have time allocated for public comments. Depending on the number of persons wishing to speak and the time available, the amount of time for oral comments may be limited. Written public comments may be sent to the BLM Central California District Office listed in the ADDRESSES section of this notice. All comments received will be provided to the RAC. Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Members of the public are welcome on field tours but must provide their own transportation and meals. Individuals who plan to attend and need special assistance, such as sign language interpretation and other reasonable accommodations, should contact the BLM (see FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT).

Detailed minutes for the RAC meetings will be maintained in the BLM Central California District Office. Minutes will also be posted to the BLM California RAC web page.
