SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background Information

On April 12, 2023, SBA published the Final Rule on Small Business Lending Company (SBLC) Moratorium Rescission and Removal of the Requirement for a Loan Authorization (88 FR 21890, effective May 12, 2023). Through that rule, SBA lifted the self-imposed moratorium on licensing new SBLCs and established the plan to approve three SBLCs in the first year following implementation. An SBLC, as defined in 13 CFR 120.10, is a non-depository lending institution authorized by SBA to make loans pursuant to section 7(a) of the Small Business Act and loans to Intermediaries in SBA's Microloan program. An SBLC is:

- Supervised and examined solely by SBA at the federal level, although the entity may be subject to state supervision;
- Subject to additional SBA Loan Program Requirements, as defined in 13 CFR 120.10, including but not limited to regulations specific to SBLCs regarding formation, capitalization, and enforcement actions; and
- Subject to all other 7(a) Loan Program Requirements including but not limited to, those specific to origination, servicing, and liquidation.

This SBLC moratorium was put in place in 1982, prior to access to modern digital tools that enhance oversight and mitigate risk. For 41 years, SBA has overseen the application and approval process approximately 60 times for the transfer of the existing SBLC licenses including determining the capability and experience of the acquiring entity's leadership; the financial capacity to make, service, and liquidate loans; and the safety and soundness of its portfolio. This ensures compliance with SBA's regulatory requirements and origination of loans based on standards consistent with similarly sized commercial loans made by other lenders.

As stated above, the purpose of this notification is to announce that SBA's Office of Capital Access is opening the application period for new Small Business Lending Companies (SBLC) licenses. SBA is also maintaining the process for purchasing one of the existing lending authorities from a current SBLC in accordance with 13 CFR 120.468.

Although SBA is not accepting applications for Community Advantage SBLCs (CA SBLCs) in this open period, SBA will continue to accept applications for new lenders in SBA's Community Advantage (CA) Pilot Program through the end of the CA Pilot Program, which will sunset on September 30, 2023. Entities that are interested in applying to become a CA Pilot lender should follow the application instructions in the Community Advantage Participant Guide, version 7, effective May 31, 2022. In accordance with SBA Information Notice 5000-846918, Community Advantage Small Business Lending Company Conversion, effective May 1, 2023, SBA will continue to work with all CA Pilot lenders to transition them to CA SBLCs.

II. SBLC Requirements

SBLCs must comply with SBA's requirements for SBA Lenders, SBA Supervised Lenders, and the additional requirements presented in 13 CFR part 120, subpart D, §§ 120.470 through 490 specifically for SBLCs.

SBLCs must:

1. Submit to the D/OCRM via OCRMSBLC@sba.gov for review their credit policy that demonstrates compliance with Title 13 of the CFR and SBA's Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) for origination, servicing, and liquidation of 7(a) loans, and which must be acceptable to SBA in its discretion.
2. Submit to the D/OCRM via OCRMSBLC@sba.gov for review and approval annual validation, with
