

wind and tornado natural phenomena without impairing their capability to perform their intended design functions during outdoor dry storage system handling activities. This DG is endorsing Nuclear Energy Institute 22–02, Revision 2, “Guidelines for Weather-Related Administrative Controls for Short Duration Outdoor Dry Cask Storage Operations,” with clarifications and exceptions.

The staff is also issuing for public comment a draft regulatory analysis (ADAMS Accession No. ML23089A014). The staff develops a regulatory analysis to assess the value of issuing or revising a regulatory guide as well as alternative courses of action.

As noted in the Federal Register on December 9, 2022 (87 FR 75671), this document is being published in the “Proposed Rules” section of the Federal Register to comply with publication requirements under 1 CFR chapter I.

III. Backfitting, Forward Fitting, and Issue Finality

Issuance of this draft regulatory guide would not constitute backfitting as defined in section 72.62 of title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations (10 CFR), “Backfitting,” and as described in NRC Management Directive (MD) 8.4, “Management of Backfitting, Forward Fitting, Issue Finality, and Information Requests” (ADAMS Accession No. ML18093B087); constitute forward fitting as that term is defined and described in MD 8.4; or affect the issue finality of any approval issued under 10 CFR part 52. Further, as explained in DG–3057, applicants and licensees would not be required to comply with the positions set forth in DG–3057.

IV. Submitting Suggestions for Improvement of Regulatory Guides

A member of the public may, at any time, submit suggestions to the NRC for improvement of existing RGs or for the development of new RGs. Suggestions can be submitted on the NRC’s public website at <https://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/doc-collections/reg-guides/contactus.html>. Suggestions will be considered in future updates and enhancements to the “Regulatory Guide” series.

RIN 1513–AC92

Consideration of Updates to Trade Practice Regulations

AGENCY: Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, Treasury.

ACTION: Advance notice of proposed rulemaking; extension of comment period.

SUMMARY: The Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) is extending for an additional 30 days the comment period for an advance notice of proposed rulemaking it published on November 9, 2022, entitled, “Consideration of Updates to Trade Practice Regulations.” TTB is taking this action in response to a request submitted by multiple stakeholder organizations.

DATES: The comment period for the advance notice of proposed rulemaking published November 9, 2022, at 87 FR 67612, is extended for thirty days. Comments are now due on or before July 7, 2023.

ADDRESSES: You may electronically submit comments on the advance notice of proposed rulemaking and view copies of that notice, this comment period extension notice, and any comments TTB receives within Docket No. TTB–2022–0011 as posted on the Regulations.gov website at <https://www.regulations.gov>. A link to that docket is available on the TTB website at <https://www.ttb.gov/laws-and-regulations/all-rulemaking> under Notice No. 216. Alternatively, you may submit comments via postal mail to the Director, Regulations and Rulings Division, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, 1310 G Street NW, Box 12, Washington, DC 20005. Please see the Public Participation section of Notice No. 216 for information on the specific issues and questions on which TTB is soliciting comments, and for information on the submission, confidentiality, and public disclosure of comments.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Christopher Forster-Smith, Regulations and Rulings Division, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, 1310 G Street NW, Box 12, Washington, DC

20005; telephone 202–453–1039 ext. 150.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Through an advance notice of proposed rulemaking (ANPRM) issued in November 2022, the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) solicited comments on its trade practice regulations related to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act’s tied house, exclusive outlet, commercial bribery, and consignment sales prohibitions, which are contained in 27 CFR parts 6, 8, 10, and 11, respectively. TTB published that ANPRM as Notice No. 216, “Consideration of Updates to Trade Practice Regulations,” in the Federal Register on November 9, 2022, at 87 FR 67612. TTB solicited comments on specific issues and questions set out in the ANPRM and also invited comments on any other issue or concern related to its trade practice regulations.

As originally published, the comment period closing date for the ANPRM was March 9, 2023. In response to a request from eight alcohol industry trade associations, TTB extended the comment period for Notice No. 216 until June 7, 2023 (see Comment 21 as posted in Docket TTB–2022–0011 on the “Regulations.gov” website at <https://www.regulations.gov>).

TTB recently received another joint request from the same eight alcohol industry trade associations to extend the comment period for the ANPRM for an additional 90 days. The eight associations supporting the request are the Wine Institute, the Distilled Spirits Council of the United States (DISCUS), WineAmerica, the American Distilled Spirits Alliance (ADSA), the Wine and Spirits Wholesalers of America (WSWA), American Beverage Licensees (ABL), the Beer Institute, and the National Beer Wholesalers Association (NBWA).

The eight associations cite several factors as a basis for their request, and state that “the additional time will allow all producers and all retailers, large and small, to provide meaningful feedback and evidence.” The comment extension request submitted by the associations is posted in Docket TTB–2022–11 as Comment 37 on the “Regulations.gov” website.

TTB also received a comment from the Brewers Association, an industry trade association, opposing any further extension of the comment period. In its comment, the Brewers Association notes that the already-extended comment period for Notice No. 216 will have been open for nearly 7 months by the June 7th closing date. The comment also notes that as Notice No. 216 is an advance notice of proposed rulemaking, there will be further opportunities to comment as the process continues with the issuance of a notice of proposed rulemaking, and states that further postponement of that process is unwarranted. The Brewers Association comment is posted in Docket TTB–2022–11 as Comment 38 on the “Regulations.gov” website.

TTB has decided to extend the comment period for Notice No. 216 for a final time, for an additional 30 days. TTB believes that this 30-day extension of the comment period, in addition to the time that the comment period has been open since November 2022, will be of sufficient length to allow interested parties to consider and comment on the issues raised in the ANPRM, while allowing TTB to then proceed with a notice of proposed rulemaking, which will provide an opportunity to comment on proposed regulations, and ultimately conclude the rulemaking in a timely manner.

Therefore, TTB will now accept public comments on Notice No. 216 through July 7, 2023. See the ANPRM, Notice No. 216, for complete information on the specific issues and questions on which TTB is seeking comment, as well as information on how to submit comments electronically or by postal mail, and on the confidentiality and public disclosure of any submitted comments.

Signed: June 1, 2023.

Deputy Administrator.

RIN 1105–AB57

Implementing the Child Pornography Victims Reserve

AGENCY: Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: By this rule, the Department of Justice (“the Department”) is proposing regulations that implement the Amy, Vicky, and Andy Child Pornography Victim Assistance Act of 2018 (“the AVAA Act” or “the Act”). The Act established the Child Pornography Victims Reserve (“Reserve”) to provide defined monetary assistance to eligible individuals who are depicted in child pornography that is the basis for certain convictions. The Reserve provides payment to such child pornography victims based on orders obtained in United States district courts. By statute, eligibility determinations are made by courts. Under this proposed rule, a claimant may choose to request that the Department present an application for a court order. This proposed rule provides procedures for the submission of requests and court orders to the Department related to payments from the Reserve. The Department will provide payment from the Reserve to the victim pursuant to a court order issued, upon receipt of the order and the requisite information from the claimant following instructions on the Department’s website for this program.

DATES: Written and electronic comments must be sent or submitted on or before August 4, 2023. Comments received by mail will be considered timely if they are postmarked or otherwise indicate a mailing or shipping date on or before the last day of the comment period. The electronic Federal Docket Management System will accept electronic comments prior to Midnight Eastern Time at the end of that day.

ADDRESSES: If you wish to provide comments regarding this rulemaking, you must submit those comments, identified by the agency name, and reference Docket No. CRM 120, by one of the two methods below.

- Federal Rulemaking Portal (preferred): <https://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the website instructions for submitting comments.

- Mail: Paper comments that duplicate an electronic submission are unnecessary. If you wish to submit a paper comment in lieu of electronic submission, please direct the mail or shipment to the following: Mr. Steve Grocki, Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section, U.S. Department of Justice, 1301 New York Ave NW, Suite 1100, Washington, DC 20530.

To ensure proper handling, please reference the agency name and Docket No. CRM 120 on your correspondence. Mailed items must be postmarked or otherwise indicate a shipping date on or before the submission deadline.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Catherine Pierce, Senior Advisor, Office for Victims of Crime, telephone (202) 307–6785 (not a toll-free number).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Public Participation

Interested persons are invited to participate in this rulemaking by submitting written data, views, or arguments on all aspects of this proposed rule via one of the methods and by the deadline stated above. All comments must be submitted in English or be accompanied by an English translation. The Department of Justice also invites comments that relate to the economic, environmental, or federalism effects that might result from this rulemaking. In addition, the Department seeks comments on appropriate criteria to be included in the request form to the Department to ensure that claimants or their authorized representatives are who they purport to be and are not fraudulent. Comments that will provide the most assistance to the Department in developing these procedures will reference a specific portion of the proposed rule, explain the reason for any recommended change, and include data, information, or authority that support such recommended change.

Please note that all comments received are considered part of the public record and made available for public inspection at www.regulations.gov. Interested persons are not required to submit their personally identifying information (“PII”) in order to comment on this proposed rule. However, any PII that is submitted is subject to being posted to the publicly accessible website at www.regulations.gov without redaction.

If you want to submit confidential business information as part of your comment but do not want it to be posted online, you must include the phrase “CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION” in the first paragraph of your comment. You must also prominently identify confidential business information to be redacted within the comment. If a comment has so much confidential business information that it cannot be effectively redacted, all or part of that comment may not be posted online.

Additionally, the Department may withhold from public viewing information provided in comments that it determines may impact the privacy of an individual or is offensive. For additional information, please read the Privacy Act notice that is available via the link in the footer of <https://www.regulations.gov>. To inspect the agency’s public docket file in person, you must make an appointment with the agency. Please see the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT paragraph above for agency contact information.
