

disability, protected genetic information, or status as a parent, and to promote the full realization of equal employment opportunity (EEO) through a continuing affirmative program in each agency.

Persons who claim to have been subjected to these types of discrimination, or to retaliation for opposing these types of discrimination or for participating in any stage of administrative or judicial proceedings relating to them, can seek a remedy under title VII of the Civil Rights Act (title VII) (42 U.S.C. 2000e et seq.) (race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, gender identity, and sexual orientation), national origin), the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA) (29 U.S.C. 621 et seq.) (age), the Equal Pay Act (29 U.S.C. 206(d)) (sex), the Rehabilitation Act (29 U.S.C. 791 et seq.) (disability), the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA) (42 U.S.C. 2000ff et seq.) (genetic information), and Executive Order 11478 (as amended by Executive Orders 13087 and 13152) (sexual orientation or status as a parent).

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS), Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties (CRCL) adjudicates discrimination complaints filed by current and former DHS employees, as well as applicants for employment at DHS. The complaint adjudication process for statutory rights is outlined in the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) regulations found at title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, part 1614, and EEOC Management Directive 110. For complaints alleging discrimination prohibited by Executive Order 11478, DHS follows procedures similar to the procedures for statutory rights, to the extent permitted by law.

The recordkeeping provisions are designed to ensure that a current employee, former employee, or applicant for employment claiming to be aggrieved or that person's attorney provide a signed statement that is sufficiently precise to identify the aggrieved individual and the agency and to describe generally the action(s) or practice(s) that form the basis of the complaint. The complaint must also contain a telephone number and address where the complainant or the representative can be contacted. The complaint form is used for original allegations of discrimination but also for amendments to underlying complaints of discrimination. The form also determines whether the person is willing to participate in mediation or other available types of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) to resolve their complaint; Congress has enacted legislation to encourage the use of ADR in the Federal sector and the form ensures that such an option is considered at this preliminary stage of the EEO complaint process.

A complainant may access the complaint form on the agency website and may submit a completed complaint form electronically to the relevant Component's EEO Office. The complaint form can then be directly uploaded into the DHS EEO Enterprise Complaints Tracking System, also known as "iComplaints."

There is no change or adjustment to the burden associated with the collection of information associated with the DHS complaint form. DHS is not proposing to make any changes to the DHS complaint form. This request is a renewal of the current ICR collection expiring in 60 days.

This is a renewal of the ICR request.

The Office of Management and Budget is particularly interested in comments which:

1. Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility.

2. Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used.

Based on an average of the formal EEO complaints filed at DHS during Fiscal Years 2014 through 2021, there are approximately 1,200 respondents each year. Of the 1,200 respondents, 1,064 are Federal employees who are exempt (noted below). We estimate the information collection to take approximately 30 minutes.

136 respondents \times 1/2 hour = 68 hours

3. Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

This information collection is conducted in manner consistent with the guidelines in 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2).

4. Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses. A complainant may access the complaint form on the agency website and may submit a completed complaint form electronically to the relevant Component's EEO Office. The complaint form can then be directly uploaded into the DHS EEO Enterprise

Complaints Tracking System, also known as "iComplaints."

Bryan Newland,

Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs.

The Lower Elwha Tribal Community—Alcoholic Beverages Ordinance shall read as follows:

1. General Purpose

The Lower Elwha Tribal Community, also known as the Lower Elwha Klallam Tribe (the “Tribe”) has a paramount interest in protecting the health, safety, and general welfare of its members, residents, and persons doing business within or visiting the Tribe’s territorial jurisdiction, and in promoting the orderly economic development of the tribal community. The purpose of this Ordinance is to exercise the Tribe’s sovereign and delegated authority to regulate the sale, distribution, and taxation of liquor within the Tribe’s territorial jurisdiction.

2. Authority

This Statute is enacted pursuant to the Act of August 15, 1953 (Pub. L. 83–277, 67 Stat. 586, 18 U.S.C. 1161) and by powers vested in the Tribal Business Committee of the Lower Elwha Tribal Community to develop, adopt and enforce statutes as authorized under Article IV, Section 1 of the Constitution of the Lower Elwha Tribal Community, adopted April 6, 1968, as subsequently amended.

3. Scope

3.1. This Ordinance applies to the full extent of the sovereign jurisdiction of the Tribe and any and all jurisdictional authority delegated by the United States under 18 U.S.C. 1161 and other laws. The Tribe has inherent authority under its Constitution to protect the public health and safety and to regulate the conduct of business within its territorial jurisdiction; specifically, Article IV, Section 1(b) of the Tribe’s Constitution authorizes the Tribe to regulate the use of community property, and Article IV, Section 1(f) thereof authorizes the Tribe to enact ordinances to levy and collect taxes and to otherwise regulate the conduct of business activities within the Tribe’s territorial jurisdiction.

3.2. Compliance with this Ordinance is a condition of any entry upon or use of any land or premises within the Tribe’s territorial jurisdiction.

3.3.1. To be bound by the terms of this Ordinance;

3.3.2. To the exclusive authority of the Tribe for purposes of administering and enforcing this Ordinance and to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Lower Elwha Tribal Court for legal actions arising under this Ordinance; and

3.3.3. To detention, service of summons and process, and search and seizure in conjunction with legal actions arising pursuant to this Ordinance.

3.4. This Ordinance is intended to be in addition to, supplementary to, and consistent with Federal law, and will not be construed as contrary to Federal law, or as inconsistent with any law of the State of Washington relative to the sale of liquor within the Tribe’s territorial jurisdiction that has been made applicable by Federal law.

4. Repeal of Prior Liquor Control Laws

4.1. Any previously enacted ordinances and resolutions of the Tribe regulating, authorizing, prohibiting, or in any way dealing with the sale of liquor are hereby repealed and declared to be of no further force and effect, with the exception of the provisions of the Elwha Justice Code Section 9.12, Drug and Alcohol Violations.

4.2. The provisions of this Ordinance are prospective only from the date of its enactment. 10. Severability

If any section, provision, phrase, addition, word, sentence, or amendment of this Ordinance or its application to any person is held invalid, that invalidity will not affect the other provisions or applications of this Ordinance that can be given effect without the invalid application.

11. Sovereign Immunity Preserved

Nothing in this Ordinance constitutes or may be construed as a waiver of the Tribe's sovereign immunity from unconsented suit. The Tribe will not enter into any inter-governmental agreement regarding the regulation of liquor within the Tribe's territorial jurisdiction that waives the Tribe's sovereign immunity for any purpose unless such waiver is expressly approved in a Resolution of the Business Committee.
