

751(d)(3) of the Act provides that “[a] determination under this section to revoke an order . . . shall apply with respect to unliquidated entries of the subject merchandise which are entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the date determined by the administering authority.” Commerce’s general practice is to instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to liquidate without regard to antidumping and countervailing duties, and to refund any estimated antidumping and countervailing duties on, all unliquidated entries of the merchandise covered by a revocation that are not covered by the final results of an administrative review or automatic liquidation.⁹

Consistent with this practice, we are applying the final results of these CCRs to all unliquidated entries of the merchandise covered by the revocations which have been entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after December 1, 2021 for the AD Order and January 1, 2021 for the CVD Order. These are the beginning dates of the earliest periods of review not covered by the final results of an administrative review or automatic liquidation instructions (i.e., December 1, 2021, through November 30, 2022 for the AD Order and January 1, 2021, through December 31, 2021 for the CVD Order).

Instructions to CBP

Because we determine that there are changed circumstances that warrant the revocation of the Orders, in part, we will instruct CBP to liquidate without regard to antidumping and countervailing duties, and to refund any estimated antidumping and countervailing duties on, all unliquidated entries of the merchandise covered by this partial revocation on or after December 1, 2021 for the AD Order and January 1, 2021 for the CVD Order.

Commerce intends to issue instructions to CBP no earlier than 35 days after the date of publication of these final results of CCRs in the Federal Register. If a timely summons is filed at the U.S. Court of International Trade, the instructions will direct CBP not to liquidate relevant entries until the time for parties to file a request for a statutory injunction has expired (i.e., within 90 days of publication).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Correction

In the Federal Register of June 26, 2023, in FR Doc. 2023–13485, on page 41385, make the following correction:

- Under the subheading titled “Cash Deposit Requirements,” revise the phrase “(1) the cash deposit rate for entries for Goodluck will be equal to the weighted-average dumping margin established in the final results of the 2020–2021 review” to “(1) the cash deposit rate for entries for Goodluck will be equal to the weighted-average dumping margin established in the final results of the 2019–2020 review.”

Background

On June 26, 2023, Commerce published in the Federal Register the final results of the antidumping duty administrative reviews of certain cold-drawn mechanical tubing of carbon and alloy steel from India, covering the first (November 22, 2017, through May 31, 2019) and second (June 1, 2019, through May 31, 2020) administrative reviews of Goodluck.¹ Therein, Commerce incorrectly stated that “the final results of the 2020–2021 review” were the basis for Goodluck’s cash deposit rate. This was incorrect. The 2019–2020 review of Goodluck—the final results of which were covered by the above-referenced Federal Register notice—serve as the basis for Goodluck’s cash deposit rate.

Notification to Interested Parties

This notice is issued and published in accordance with sections 751(a) and 777(i)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and 19 CFR 351.221(b)(5).

Dated: June 27, 2023.

Assistant Secretary for Enforcement and Compliance.
