Rate Adjustments for Indian Irrigation Projects

AGENCY: Bureau of Indian Affairs, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) owns or has an interest in irrigation projects located on or associated with various Indian reservations throughout the United States. We are required to establish irrigation assessment rates to recover the costs to administer, operate, maintain, and rehabilitate these projects. We are notifying you that we have adjusted the irrigation assessment rates at several of our irrigation projects and facilities to reflect current costs of administration, operation, maintenance, and rehabilitation.

DATES: The 2024 Irrigation Assessment Rates are effective on January 1, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Leslie Underwood, Program Specialist, Division of Water and Power, Office of Trust Services, (406) 657–5985. For details about a particular BIA irrigation project, please use the tables in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section to contact the BIA regional or local office where the irrigation project is located.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: A Notice of Proposed Rate Adjustment was published in the Federal Register on January 18, 2023 (88 FR 2965) to propose adjustments to the irrigation assessment rates at several BIA irrigation projects. The public and interested parties were provided an opportunity to submit written comments during the 60-day period that ended March 20, 2023.

Did BIA defer or change any proposed rate increases?

No. BIA did not defer or change any proposed rate increases.

Did BIA receive any comments on the proposed irrigation assessment rate adjustments?

Yes. BIA received three (3) written comments related to the proposed 2024 irrigation assessment rate adjustments for the Flathead Indian Irrigation Project (FIIP) and Wapato Irrigation Project (WIP). Comments were received by letter and email.

What issues were of concern to the commenters?

BIA's summary of the issues and responses are provided below. Commenters raised concerns on the proposed rate adjustment about the following issues:

The following comments are specific to the Flathead Indian Irrigation Project (FIIP)

Comment: Commenters state a general opposition to the FIIP 2024 rate increase, along with a specific concern that the project is understaffed and personnel costs should not increase until personnel are hired.

Response: As noted when rates were proposed in the Federal Register on January 18, 2023 (88 FR 2965), BIA is required to establish irrigation assessment rates that recover the costs to administer, operate, maintain, and rehabilitate our projects. As owner of FIIP, it is BIA's responsibility to ensure adequate resources are made available to meet the requirements noted above. BIA's authority to assess rates is codified at 25 U.S.C. 381 et seq. and is addressed in BIA's regulations at 25 CFR part 171. See also February 29, 2008 (73 FR 11028 at 11039–11041). Additionally, the repayment contracts between the respective irrigation districts and the Department of the Interior explicitly state that operation and maintenance (O&M) expenses “shall be paid . . . as provided . . . by rules made or to be made . . . by the Secretary of the Interior.” The procedures followed by BIA in adjusting its irrigation assessment rates are consistent with applicable law and past practice, and the methodology used by BIA to determine the O&M assessment rates for FIIP is reasonable.

The proposed 2024 irrigation assessment adjustments for FIIP's basic per acre rate categories are necessary and justified due to the increased costs associated with administering, operating, maintaining, and rehabilitating FIIP. In accordance with BIA financial guidelines and 25 CFR part 171, BIA developed the FIIP budget for 2024 expenditures and income approximately two years in advance. BIA relied on financial reports generated by the Financial and Business Management System and procurement files to review past expenditures and project a future budget. The FIIP Project Manager also used his discretion to assess and anticipate upcoming financial needs and priorities. The 2024 expenses were then divided by the total assessable acres within FIIP. The $3.50 per acre assessment increase for the “basic per acre—A” rate category, as well as the $1.75 per acre assessment increase for the “basic per acre—B” rate category, are necessary to ensure FIIP can pay its anticipated expenses for 2024.

Following BIA policy, the FIIP Project Manager held semiannual water user meetings on December 13, 2022 and May 15, 2023. Attendees included individual water users, Flathead Irrigation District representatives, Mission Irrigation District representatives, Jocko Irrigation District representatives, and a representative for the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes. During these meetings, BIA presented details supporting the 2024 budget, upcoming expenses, and the proposed O&M assessment increase from $35.50 to $39.00 per acre.

FIIP provides irrigation service commensurate with its resources which means the $3.50 per acre assessment increase is needed to improve the project's quality of service. The quality of irrigation service will improve as funding becomes available to fill additional personnel positions, while also retaining and increasing experience levels of existing FIIP staff.

Due to a variety of reasons, recruitment for FIIP positions has proved to be challenging over the past few years. To address these challenges, BIA recently decided to hire three Human Resources (HR) personnel dedicated to providing hiring services and employee relations to FIIP and the two other BIA irrigation projects—Wapato and Fort Hall—in the BIA Northwest Region. The three irrigation projects will jointly fund these new HR personnel. Under this HR framework, BIA aims to rapidly fill FIIP's vacancies in 2024. FIIP's organizational chart contains 58 positions total, of which 37 are currently filled. The 2024 budget includes personnel salary, benefits, and overtime for FIIP's existing personnel and 11 vacant positions. The remaining 10 vacant positions in FIIP's organizational chart are not funded in the 2024 budget.

Comment: The Mission and Jacko Irrigation Districts request an audit of FIIP to determine what happened to the Cooperative Management Entity's supposed $6.5 million of financial assets.

Response: In 2014, BIA reassumed O&M of FIIP from the dissolved Cooperative Management Entity (CME). From March 2014 through June 2015, BIA acquired the CME's property and financial assets. BIA has records of all reassumption acquisitions, which clearly show CME's financial assets totaled around $2 million. Because we have records of all reassumption acquisitions and subsequent BIA expenditures on authorized purposes, an audit is not warranted.

The Following Comments Are Specific to the Wapato Irrigation Project (WIP)

Comment: The Yakama Nation objects to WIP's assessment increase because it will have negative economic consequences on farmers and associated agricultural activities.

Response: As explained above, BIA is required to establish irrigation assessment rates that recover the costs to administer, operate, maintain, and rehabilitate our projects. BIA's projects are important economic contributors to the local communities they serve, and they contribute millions of dollars in crop value annually. Unfortunately, the costs associated with operating and maintaining an irrigation project may increase independently of prices and costs that are realized by the irrigators. Historically, BIA tempered irrigation rates to demonstrate sensitivity to the economic impact on water users, but that past practice resulted in a rate deficiency at some irrigation projects. Therefore, funding to operate and maintain these projects needs to come from the water users served by those projects.

BIA's irrigation program has been the subject of several Office of Inspector General (OIG) and U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO) audits. In the most recent OIG audit, No. 96-I-641, March 1996, the OIG concluded:

Operation and maintenance revenues were insufficient to maintain the projects, and some projects had deteriorated to the extent that their continued capability to deliver water was in doubt. This occurred because operation and maintenance rates were not based on the full cost of delivering irrigation water, including the costs of systematically rehabilitating and replacing project facilities and equipment, and because project personnel did not seek regular rate increases to cover the full cost of project operation.

A previous OIG audit performed on WIP, No. 95-I-1402, September 1995, reached the same conclusion. To address the issues noted in these audits, BIA must systematically review and evaluate irrigation assessment rates and adjust them, when necessary, to reflect the full cost to operate and perform all appropriate maintenance on the irrigation project or facility infrastructure to ensure safe and reliable operation. If this review and adjustment is not accomplished, a rate deficiency can accumulate over time. Rate deficiencies force BIA to raise irrigation assessment rates in larger increments over shorter periods than would have been otherwise necessary.

WIP's assessment rates have remained the same from 2016 through 2023. Although assessments have not changed, all O&M expenses have increased due in part to inflation, rising construction costs, and spiking energy and fuel costs. Additionally, WIP needs to increase revenues to fill vacancies (further details below) and complete rehabilitation activities pursuant to our modernization studies. O&M revenues must supplement nonreimbursable appropriated funding for large upcoming rehabilitation expenses, including reconstruction of the Wapato Diversion and improvement of fish passage on the Yakima River, as well as repairs to the Drop 1 Pumping Plant that services the Main Canal, Main Canal Extension, and Highline Canal. After eight years of a stagnant budget, WIP must increase revenues to address its backlog of deferred maintenance. BIA has projected this rate increase for several years and anticipated increasing the assessment rate in 2024. The WIP budget was prepared in accordance with BIA financial guidelines. Based on increased costs associated with administering, operating, and maintaining, and rehabilitating WIP, the need for the proposed rate increase is clear and justified.

Comment: The Yakama Nation states WIP is chronically understaffed and requests a larger and better trained staff to improve water delivery operations.

Response: BIA is committed to filling vacancies in WIP's 87-position organizational chart. The 2024 budget includes personnel salary, benefits, and overtime for 65 employees, which is an increase of 16 WIP employees above the current 2023 staffing levels. The remaining 22 vacant positions in WIP's organizational chart are not accounted for in the 2024 O&M budget. As explained above, WIP will soon receive hiring assistance from HR staff dedicated to filling irrigation vacancies in the BIA Northwest Region. Under this new HR framework, WIP aims to aggressively fill its vacancies in 2024.

The quality of irrigation service will improve as funding becomes available to fill additional personnel positions, while also retaining and increasing experience levels of existing WIP staff. BIA provides routine training to its staff on topics including, but not limited to, financial management, safety and security, water measurement, herbicide application, defensive driving, and heavy equipment operations.

Comment: The Yakama Nation requests consultation on the justification for the 2024 proposed annual irrigation assessment rates in addition to frequent opportunities to consult and receive updates on WIP's operations and upgrades.

Response: To fulfill its consultation responsibility to Tribes and Tribal organizations, BIA communicates, coordinates, and consults on a continuing basis with these entities on issues of water delivery, water availability, and costs of administration, operation, maintenance, and rehabilitation of projects that concern them. This is accomplished at the individual irrigation project by project, agency, and regional representatives, as appropriate, and through semiannual water user meetings. This notice is one component of our overall coordination and consultation process to provide notice to, and request comments from, these entities when we adjust irrigation assessment rates.

For several years, the WIP Project Manager has advised water users that a rate increase is necessary. Most recently, WIP held its semiannual water user meetings on November 2, 2022 and March 20, 2023. Attendees included the Yakama Reservation Irrigation District board members, individual water users, Yakama Nation employees, and a member of the Yakama Nation's Tribal Council Committee on Roads, Irrigation, and Lands. Additionally, the WIP Project Administrator met with the Yakama Nation Tribal Council on March 5, 2021 and April 5, 2023. At all of these meetings, BIA explained upcoming project expenses and the basis for increasing WIP's 2024 irrigation assessment rates. Attendees' comments and questions have been taken into consideration. We appreciate the Yakama Nation's participation in our meetings and comments regarding how to improve WIP, and we have sent a follow-up letter to the Yakama Nation with additional details.

* Notes irrigation projects where rates are adjusted.

+ These rates have not yet been determined.

† The excess water rate applies to all water used in excess of 50,000 gallons in any one month.

Note #1: O&M rates for LeClair and Riverton Valley Irrigation Districts apply to Trust lands that are serviced by each irrigation district. The annual O&M rates are based on budgets submitted by LeClair and Riverton Valley Irrigation Districts, respectively.

Note #2: The O&M rate for the Yuma Project, Indian Unit has two components. The first component of the O&M rate is established by the Bureau of Reclamation (BOR), the owner and operator of the Project. BOR's rate, which is based upon the annual budget submitted by BOR is $157.00 for 2023 but has not been established for 2024. The second component of the O&M rate is established by BIA to cover administrative costs, which includes billing and collections for the Project. The final 2023 and 2024 BIA rate component is $4.00 per acre.

Note #3: The Construction Water Rate Schedule identifies fees assessed for use of irrigation water for non-irrigation purposes.

Note #4: The O&M rate for the San Carlos Irrigation Project—Indian Works has three components. The first component is established by BIA San Carlos Irrigation Project—Indian Works, the owner and operator of the Project; the 2023 rate is $56.50 per acre, and final 2024 rate is $55.85 per acre. The second component is established by BIA San Carlos Irrigation Project—Joint Works; the 2023 rate is $26.00 per acre, and final 2024 rate is $26.00 per acre. The third component is established by the San Carlos Irrigation Project Joint Control Board (comprised of representatives from the Gila River Indian Community and the San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District); the 2023 rate is $8.00 per acre (revised from $16.94 per acre), and 2024 rate is $17.77 per acre.

Consultation and Coordination With Tribal Governments (Executive Order 13175)

The Department of the Interior strives to strengthen its government-to-government relationship with Indian Tribes through a commitment to consultation with Indian Tribes and recognition of their right to self-governance and Tribal sovereignty. We have evaluated this notice under the Department's consultation policy and under the criteria of Executive Order 13175 and have determined there to be substantial direct effects on federally recognized Tribes because the irrigation projects are located on or associated with Indian reservations. To fulfill its consultation responsibility to Tribes and Tribal organizations, BIA communicates, coordinates, and consults on a continuing basis with these entities on issues of water delivery, water availability, and costs of administration, operation, maintenance, and rehabilitation of projects that concern them. This is accomplished at the individual irrigation project by project, agency, and regional representatives, as appropriate, in accordance with local protocol and procedures. This notice is one component of our overall coordination and consultation process to provide notice to, and request comments from, these entities when we adjust irrigation assessment rates.

Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use (Executive Order 13211)

These rate adjustments are not a significant energy action under the definition in Executive Order 13211. A Statement of Energy Effects is not required.

Regulatory Planning and Review (Executive Order 12866, as Amended by E.O. 14094)

These rate adjustments are not a significant regulatory action and do not need to be reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget under Executive Order 12866, as amended by E.O. 14094.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

These rate adjustments are not a rule for the purposes of the Regulatory Flexibility Act because they establish "a rule of particular applicability relating to rates." 5 U.S.C. 601(2).

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

These rate adjustments do not impose an unfunded mandate on state, local, or Tribal governments in the aggregate, or on the private sector, of more than $130 million per year. They do not have a significant or unique effect on State, local, or Tribal governments or the private sector. Therefore, the Department is not required to prepare a statement containing the information required by the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (2 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.).

Takings (Executive Order 12630)

These rate adjustments do not effect a taking of private property or otherwise have “takings” implications under Executive Order 12630. The rate adjustments do not deprive the public, State, or local governments of rights or property.

Federalism (Executive Order 13132)

Under the criteria in section 1 of Executive Order 13132, these rate adjustments do not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a federalism summary impact statement because they will not affect the States, the relationship between the national government and the States, or the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. A federalism summary impact statement is not required.

Civil Justice Reform (Executive Order 12988)

This notice complies with the requirements of Executive Order 12988. Specifically, in issuing this notice, the Department has taken the necessary steps to eliminate drafting errors and ambiguity, minimize potential litigation, and provide a clear legal standard for affected conduct as required by section 3 of Executive Order 12988.

Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

These rate adjustments do not affect the collections of information which have been approved by the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The OMB Control Number is 1076–0141 and expires March 31, 2026.

National Environmental Policy Act

The Department has determined that these rate adjustments do not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and that no detailed statement is required under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, 42 U.S.C. 4321–4370(d)), pursuant to 43 CFR 46.210(i). In addition, the rate adjustments do not present any of the 12 extraordinary circumstances listed at 43 CFR 46.215.
