

(B) Conclusion with respect to whether there is probable cause to believe that the accused committed the offense charged in the specification;

(C) Conclusion with respect to whether a court-martial would have jurisdiction over the accused and the offense; and

(D) Recommendation as to the disposition that should be made of the charges and specifications by the convening authority in the interest of justice and discipline.

(2) Special-court martial. Subject to R.C.M. 406(b), before any charge may be referred for trial by a special court-martial, the convening authority shall consult a judge advocate on relevant legal issues. Such issues may include:

(A) Whether each specification alleges an offense under the UCMJ;

(B) Whether there is probable cause to believe the accused committed the offense(s) charged;

(C) Whether a court-martial would have jurisdiction over the accused and the offense;

(D) The form of the charges and specifications and any necessary modifications; and

(E) Any other factors relating to disposition of the charges and specifications in the interest of justice and discipline.

(b) Special trial counsel determinations. For all charges alleging covered offenses, and other charges over which special trial counsel has exercised authority and has not deferred, referral to a special or general court-martial may be made only by a special trial counsel and the referral must be accompanied by a special trial counsel's written determination that:

(1) each specification under a charge alleges an offense under the UCMJ;

(2) there is probable cause to believe that the accused committed the offense charged; and

(3) a court-martial would have jurisdiction over the accused and the offense.

(c) Distribution.

(1) Subject to R.C.M. 406(c)(2), a copy of the written advice of the staff judge advocate shall be provided to the defense if charges are referred for trial by general court-martial.

(2) For those cases over which special trial counsel exercises exclusive authority, a copy of the written determination by special trial counsel shall be provided to the defense if charges are referred for trial by general or special court-martial.”

(hh) R.C.M. 406A is deleted.

(ii) R.C.M. 407(a)(1) is amended to read as follows:

“(a) Disposition. Except for covered offenses and any other charges over which a special trial counsel has exercised authority and has not deferred, a commander exercising general court-martial jurisdiction, when in receipt of charges, may:

(1) Dismiss any charge;

(2) Forward any charge (or, after dismissing charges, the matter) to a subordinate commander for disposition;

(3) Forward any charge to a superior commander for disposition;

(4) Subject to R.C.M. 201(f)(2)(D) and (E), 601(d), and 1301(c), refer any charge to a summary court-martial or to a special court-martial for trial;

(5) Unless otherwise prescribed by the Secretary concerned, direct a preliminary hearing under R.C.M. 405, after which additional action under this rule may be taken;

(6) Subject to R.C.M. 601(d), refer any charge to a general court-martial.”

(jj) R.C.M. 407(b) is amended to read as follows:
