

“(e) Notice to Victims. A victim must be notified of any post-trial motion, filing, or hearing that may address:

- (1) the findings or sentence of a court-martial with respect to the accused;
- (2) the unsealing of privileged or private information of a victim; or
- (3) any action resulting in the release of an accused.”

(kk) R.C.M. 1106(a) is amended to read as follows:

“(a) In general. After a sentence is announced in a court-martial, the accused may submit matters to the convening authority for consideration in the exercise of the convening authority’s powers under R.C.M. 1109, 1110, or 1306.”

(ll) R.C.M. 1106A(a) is amended to read as follows:

“(a) In general. In a case with a crime victim, after a sentence is announced in a court-martial any crime victim of an offense of which the accused was found guilty may submit matters to the convening authority for consideration in the exercise of the convening authority’s powers under R.C.M. 1109, 1110, or 1306.”

(mm) R.C.M. 1107(b)(2) is amended to read as follows:

“(2) Suspension after entry of judgment. The convening authority who convened the original court-martial, the convening authority’s successor in command, or a convening authority otherwise designated by the Secretary concerned may suspend any part of the unexecuted part of any sentence except a sentence of death, dishonorable discharge, bad-conduct discharge, dismissal, or confinement for more than six months.”

(nn) R.C.M. 1109(e)(3) is amended to read as follows:

“(3) Who may act.

(A) Before entry of judgment, the convening authority who convened the original court-martial or the convening authority's successor in command may act on the recommendation of trial counsel under paragraph (2).

(B) After entry of judgment, the convening authority who convened the original court-martial or the convening authority's successor in command or a convening authority otherwise designated by the Secretary concerned may act on the recommendation of trial counsel under paragraph (2).”

(oo) R.C.M. 1109(e)(5)(B) is amended to read as follows:

“(B) In the case of a recommendation by trial counsel under paragraph (2) of this subsection made more than one year after entry of judgment, the convening authority who convened the original court-martial or the convening authority's successor in command or a convening authority otherwise designated by the Secretary concerned may reduce a sentence only if the substantial assistance of the accused involved—

(i) Information not known to the accused until one year or more after sentencing;

(ii) Information the usefulness of which could not reasonably have been anticipated by the accused until more than one year after sentencing and which was promptly provided to the Government after its usefulness was reasonably apparent to the accused; or

(iii) Information provided by the accused to the Government within one year of sentencing, but which did not become useful to the Government until more than one year after sentencing.”

(pp) R.C.M. 1109(e)(7) is amended to read as follows:

“(7) Action after entry of judgment. If the convening authority who convened the original court-martial or the convening authority's successor in command or a convening authority
