We may not conduct or sponsor, and you are not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

As part of our continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burdens, we invite the public and other

Federal agencies to comment on new, proposed, revised, and continuing collections of information. This helps us assess the impact of our information collection requirements and minimize the public's reporting burden. It also helps the public understand our information collection requirements and provide the requested data in the desired format.

We are especially interested in public comment addressing the following:

- (1) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- (2) The accuracy of our estimate of the burden for this collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- (3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- (4) How the agency might minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of response.

Comments that you submit in response to this notice are a matter of public record. We will include or summarize each comment in our request to OMB to approve this ICR. Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Abstract: This OMB control number applies to the exploration, development, and utilization of oil shale resources on the BLM-managed public lands. Currently, the only oil shale leases issued by the BLM are research, development, and demonstration (RD&D) leases. However, the BLM regulations provide a framework for commercial oil shale leasing and additionally include provisions for conversion of RD&D leases to commercial leases. Section 369 of the Energy Policy Act (42 U.S.C. 15927) addresses oil shale development and authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to establish regulations for a commercial leasing program for oil shale. The Mineral Leasing Act of 1920 (30 U.S.C.241(a)) provides the authority for the BLM to allow for the exploration, development, and utilization of oil shale resources on the BLM-managed public lands. Additional statutory authorities for the oil shale program are: (1) The Mineral Leasing Act for Acquired Lands of 1947 (30 U.S.C. 351–359); and (2) The Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA) of 1976 (43 U.S.C. 1701 et seq., including 43 U.S.C. 1732). OMB Control Number 1004–0201 is currently scheduled to expire on June 30, 2024. The BLM plans to request that OMB renew this OMB control number for an additional three (3) years.Title of Collection: Oil Shale Management (43 CFR parts 3900, 3910, 3920, and 3930).OMB Control Number: 1004–0201.Form Number: None.Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.Respondents/Affected Public: Applicants for oil shale leases, oil shale lessees and oil shale operators.Total Estimated Number of Annual Respondents: 2.Total Estimated Number of Annual Responses: 24.Estimated Completion Time per Response: Varies from the number of minutes/hours per response.Total Estimated Number of Annual Burden Hours: 1,795.Respondent's Obligation: Required to obtain or retain a benefit.Frequency of Collection: On occasion.Total Estimated Annual Nonhour Burden Cost: $526,667.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

The authority for this action is the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.).Darrin A. King,Information Collection Clearance Officer.*

Notice of Intent To Repatriate Cultural Items: David A. Fredrickson Archaeological Collections Facility at Sonoma State University, Rohnert Park, CAAGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), the David A. Fredrickson Archaeological Collections Facility at Sonoma State University intends to repatriate a certain cultural item that meets the definition of an object of cultural patrimony and that has a cultural affiliation with the Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations in this notice. The cultural item was removed from Sutter County, CA.

DATES: Repatriation of the cultural item in this notice may occur on or after October 12, 2023.

ADDRESSES: Doshia Dodd, David A. Fredrickson Archaeological Collections Facility at Sonoma State University, 1801 East Cotati Avenue, Building 29, Rohnert Park, CA 94928, telephone (530) 514-8472, email caradine@sonoma.edu.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA. The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of the David A. Fredrickson Archaeological Collections Facility at Sonoma State University. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice. Additional information on the determinations in this notice, including the results of consultation, can be found in the summary or related records held by the David A. Fredrickson Archaeological Collections Facility at Sonoma State University.

Description

One cultural item (Accession Number 91-29) was removed from archeological site CA-SUT-17 in Sutter County, CA, in 1991. The object of cultural patrimony is one lot consisting of flaked stone tools and debitage; faunal bone tools; groundstone objects; shell beads; and unmodified faunal bones and shells.

Cultural Affiliation

The cultural item in this notice is connected to one or more identifiable earlier groups, tribes, peoples, or cultures. There is a relationship of shared group identity between the identifiable earlier groups, tribes, peoples, or cultures and one or more Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian organizations. The following types of information were used to reasonably trace the relationship: anthropological, archeological, geographical, historical, and expert opinion in the form of Tribal Traditional Knowledge.

Determinations

Pursuant to NAGPRA and its implementing regulations, and after consultation with the appropriate Indian Tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations, the David A. Fredrickson Archaeological Collections Facility at Sonoma State University has determined that:

- The one cultural item described above has ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group or culture itself, rather than property owned by an individual.
- There is a relationship of shared group identity that can be reasonably traced between the cultural item and the United Auburn Indian Community of the Auburn Rancheria of California.

Requests for Repatriation

Additional, written requests for repatriation of the cultural items in this notice must be sent to the Responsible Official identified in ADDRESSES. Requests for repatriation may be submitted by any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the requestor is a lineal descendant or a culturally affiliated Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

Repatriation of the cultural items in this notice to a requestor may occur on or after October 12, 2023. If competing requests for repatriation are received, the David A. Fredrickson Archaeological Collections Facility at Sonoma State University must determine the most appropriate requestor prior to repatriation. Requests for joint repatriation of the cultural items are considered a single request and not competing requests. The David A. Fredrickson Archaeological Collections Facility at Sonoma State University is responsible for sending a copy of this notice to the Indian Tribe identified in this notice.

Authority: Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, 25 U.S.C. 3003, and the implementing regulations, 43 CFR 10.8, § 10.10, and § 10.14.

Dated: August 30, 2023.

Melanie O'Brien,

Manager, National NAGPRA Program.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice is published as part of the National Park Service's administrative responsibilities under NAGPRA. The determinations in this notice are the sole responsibility of Michigan State University. The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations in this notice. Additional information on the determinations in this notice, including the results of consultation, can be found in the summary or related records held by Michigan State University.

Description

The 381 cultural items were removed from Mackinac County, MI. Beginning in 1958, these objects were removed from the Gros Cap Archaeological District in Mackinac County, MI. Sites and localities within the District and surrounding area include the Gros Cap site (20MK6), the Campfire Site (20MK7), the post-contact era Gros Cap Cemetery, "Ryerse Beach Cottage," "Graham Point," and "Killarney Beach." The objects were acquired by Orlando Greenlees. On at least one occasion, Greenlees acquired Native American cultural items from other individuals, including a Mr. Bicknell. Mr. Greenlees owned the property adjacent to the Gros Cap Cemetery and served as its caretaker. In 1970, Alicia Mackin acquired Greenlees' collection, and on April 12, 1976, she donated it to Michigan State University Museum.
