

only information about individuals that is relevant and necessary to accomplish a purpose that is required by a statute or executive order. The FCC has determined that the FCC/WTB-5, Application Review List for Present or Former Licensees, Operators, or Unlicensed Persons Operating Radio Equipment, system of records no longer meets this standard, because WTB no longer maintains the system's manual lists, nor has it retained any paper files from this system. The lists are now contained in an electronic alert list in the FCC/WTB-1, Wireless Services Licensing Records, system of records. All of the paper records for this system have been destroyed in accordance with the retention and disposal provisions of the WTB-5 SORN. Therefore, the FCC proposes to rescind FCC/WTB-5, Application Review List for Present or Former Licensees, Operators, or Unlicensed Persons Operating Radio Equipment Improperly.

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[Docket No. 23-10]

Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., Complainant v. Yang Ming Marine Transport Corp., Respondent; Notice of Filing of Complaint and Assignment

Served: September 12, 2023.

Notice is given that a complaint has been filed with the Federal Maritime Commission (the "Commission") by Bed Bath & Beyond Inc. (the "Complainant") against Yang Ming Marine Transport Corp. (the "Respondent"). Complainant states that the Commission has subject-matter jurisdiction over the complaint under the Shipping Act of 1984, as amended, 46 U.S.C. 40101 et seq. (the "Shipping Act") and personal jurisdiction over the Respondent as an ocean common carrier who entered into a service contract with Complainant.

Complainant is a corporation existing under the laws of New York with a principal place of business in Union, New Jersey, and a shipper for the purposes of the allegations made in the complaint.

Complainant identifies Respondent as a company existing under the laws of Taiwan with a principal place of business in Keelung, Taiwan, and an ocean common carrier.
