In accordance with this law, the Treasury Department and the Department of Justice jointly promulgated Federal Claims Collection Standards (FCCS), 31 CFR parts 900 through 904. by administrative offset that are consistent with the FCCS. 31 U.S.C. 3716. These regulations are required before an agency may collect a debt by administrative offset.

In the direct final rule, the DNFSB stated that, if no significant adverse comments were received, the direct final rule would become effective on October 11, 2023. The DNFSB received one comment. The DNFSB evaluated the comment against the criteria described in the direct final rule and determined that the comment was not significant and adverse. Specifically, the commentator stated that the rule would be “great” due to “the added measure of structure and accountability that will result from this rule.” The comment was positive and supportive. The direct final rule will become effective as scheduled.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

These regulations implement the debt collection procedures provided under section 5 of the Debt Collection Act (DCA), as amended, codified at 5 U.S.C. 5514. The DCA authorizes the federal government to collect debts by offset from the salaries of federal employees without the employee’s consent, provided that the employee is properly notified and given the opportunity to exercise certain administrative rights.

The DCA, codified at 5 U.S.C. 5514, made changes in the way executive agencies collect debts owed to the federal government. The purpose of the DCA is to improve the ability of the government to collect money owed to it. The DCA requires each agency to establish a salary offset program for the collection of debts owed by federal employees to the federal government. Before an agency may collect a debt by salary offset, an employee-debtor must be provided with notice of the debt and the opportunity to (1) inspect and copy government records relating to the debt, (2) enter into a written repayment agreement, and (3) request an impartial hearing on the agency’s determination of the existence or the amount of the debt. The employee must notify the agency of his or her intent to exercise these rights within the time prescribed in the agency’s regulations.
