SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The agenda is as follows:

1. NEA Resources

a. The NEA, established by Congress in 1965, is an independent Federal agency that is the largest funder of the arts and arts education in communities nationwide and a catalyst of public and private support for the arts. By advancing equitable opportunities for arts participation and practice, the NEA fosters and sustains an environment in which the arts benefit everyone in the United States. This is accomplished primarily by providing resources to support the creative lives of all communities in the United States. Grants are awarded for specific projects to 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, federally recognized Tribes, or units of State or local government. Individual makers, artists, and culture bearers are recognized and supported through programs such as the National Heritage Fellowship, Jazz Masters, and Creative Writing Fellowships. Forty percent of the NEA’s program budget is granted to State Arts Agencies and Regional Arts Organizations, which make subgrants to support additional arts activities across the nation.

- i. What is your awareness of our agency’s work?
- ii. Have NEA resources impacted your community? If so, how?
- iii. To what extent do you see the arts and cultural activities of your tribal community reflected in the resources we offer?
- iv. The review criteria for our primary grant program, Grants for Arts Projects, includes artistic excellence, which is defined as “The quality of the artists and other key individuals, creative process, works of art, organizations, arts education providers, artistic partners, and/or services involved in the project and their relevance to the audience or communities the project aims to serve.” How does this definition of artistic excellence resonate with the artistic and cultural activities of your tribal community?

2. Tribal Engagement

a. In recent years, the NEA has made grants to Tribal governments and Tribal Colleges & Universities (TCUs). We also have recognized Indigenous artists with National Heritage Fellowships. These direct grants to Tribes, Tribal citizens, and TCUs are in addition to the grants we make to Native-serving nonprofits.

- i. How can the NEA expand on this engagement with tribes and increase awareness of these opportunities?
- ii. If the NEA has the resources to send staff representation to in-person events, where would our participation be most effective?
- b. The NEA annually updates the Federal Resources for Native Arts & Cultural Activities, which is a consolidation of opportunities offered by federal agencies for organizations looking for funding and other resources to support Native arts and cultural activities.
 - i. Have you ever accessed this publication?
 - ii. Is this publication a useful resource to make available to tribal communities?
 - iii. How can we increase awareness of this resource guide?

3. Partnerships With Tribal-Serving Organizations

a. Tribal Arts Councils: At the last NEA Tribal Consultation session, the NEA discussed the possibility of supporting the work of Tribal Arts Councils, bodies organized to support arts and cultural activities at the regional level by providing programs and support services. These Tribal Arts Councils could be similar in form to State, regional or local Arts agencies,
