

- Economic development, such as the amount of money visitors spend in an area.

- Trip characteristics, for example, length of trip and trip purpose, activities, and destinations.
- Visitor or user demographics and use data, such as city and state of residence, age group, gender, race, and number of people or vehicles in a party.

All results are aggregated so that specific responses cannot be connected to specific respondents. If any names, addresses, or telephone numbers are collected, FLMAs will not store that information with responses. Contact information will be purged from FLMAs' files once data collections are completed.

Participation in the FLMA surveys, interviews, focus groups, and other data collections under this information collection is strictly voluntary. The information may be collected and analyzed by FLMA personnel, private contractors, other federal agencies, or universities or other educational institutions conducting the information collection on behalf of the FLMAs. All results will be aggregated so specific responses cannot be connected to specific respondents.

Without coordinated information collections on recreation and supporting transportation programs and systems on federal land, the FLMAs will lack the information necessary to identify and implement improvements in recreational services and facilities and supporting transportation programs and systems that address public needs, protect federal land and resources, and enhance the visitor experience. These information collections will become more important as demand for access to FLMA recreation sites and opportunities continues to grow.

Estimated Annual Burden per Respondent: 0.35 hour for surveys, 1.5 hours for focus groups, 1 hour for interviews, and 0.05 hour for comment cards.

Type of Respondents: Individuals and households, businesses and non-profit organizations, and state, local, and Tribal governments.

Estimated Annual Number of Respondents: 50,000.

Estimated Annual Number of Responses per Respondent: 1.

Estimated Total Annual Burden on Respondents: 8,000 hours.

Comment Is Invited

Comment is invited on (1) whether this information collection request is necessary for the stated purposes and the proper performance of the functions of the FLMAs, including whether the information collected will have practical or scientific utility; (2) the accuracy of the Forest Service's estimate of the burden of the information collection request, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of the information collection request on respondents, including the use of automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

All comments received in response to this notice, including names and addresses when provided, will be a matter of public record. Comments will be summarized and included in the submission request for Office of Management and Budget approval.

David Lytle,

Deputy Chief, Research and Development.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of Economic Analysis

Agency Information Collection Activities; Submission to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for Review and Approval; Comment Request; Services Surveys: BE-140, Benchmark Survey of Insurance Transactions by U.S. Insurance Companies With Foreign Persons

The Department of Commerce will submit the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and clearance, in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA) on or after the date of publication of this notice. We invite the general public and other Federal agencies to comment on proposed and continuing information collections, which helps us assess the impact of our information collection requirements and minimize the public's reporting burden. Public comments were previously requested via the Federal Register on July 19, 2023, during a 60-day comment period. This notice allows for an additional 30 days for public comments.

Agency: Bureau of Economic Analysis, Department of Commerce.

OMB Control Number: 0608-0073.

Form Number(s): BE-140.

Type of Request: Regular submission. Reinstatement with change of a previously approved collection.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 1,300 annually (1,000 reporting mandatory data and 300 that would file exemption claims or voluntary responses).

Estimated Time per Response: 9 hours is the average for the 600 respondents filing data by country and affiliation, 2 hours for the 400 respondents filing data by transaction type only, and 1 hour for those filing an exemption claim or other response. Hours may vary considerably among respondents because of differences in company size and complexity.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 6,500.

Needs and Uses: The data are needed to monitor U.S. trade in insurance services, to analyze the impact of these cross-border services on the U.S. and foreign economies, to compile and improve the U.S. economic accounts, to support U.S. commercial policy on trade in services, to conduct trade promotion, and to improve the ability of U.S. businesses to identify and evaluate market opportunities. The data are used in estimating the trade in insurance services component of the U.S. international transactions accounts (ITAs) and national income and product accounts (NIPAs).

Affected Public: Business or other for-profit organizations.

Frequency: Every fifth year, for reporting years ending in "3" and "8".

Respondent's Obligation: Mandatory.

Legal Authority: International Investment and Trade in Services Survey Act (Pub. L. 94-472, 22 U.S.C. 3101-3108, as amended).

This information collection request may be viewed at www.reginfo.gov. Follow the instructions to view the Department of Commerce collections currently under review by OMB.

Written comments and recommendations for the proposed information collection should be submitted within 30 days of the publication of this notice on the following website www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain. Find this particular information collection by selecting "Currently under 30-day Review—Open for Public Comments" or by using the search function and entering either the title of the collection or the OMB Control Number 0608-0073.
