

General description of collection: The Board uses this collection to seek input from users or potential users of the Board's publications, resources, and conference materials to understand their interests and needs; to inform decisions concerning content, design, and dissemination strategies; to gauge public awareness of the Board's publications, resources, and conferences; and to assess the effectiveness of the Board's communications with various respondents.

The surveys in this collection are used to gather qualitative and quantitative information directly from users or potential users of Board publications, resources, and conference materials, such as consumers (consumer surveys) and stakeholders (stakeholder surveys). The content of survey questions and the type of consumer or stakeholder respondents vary from survey to survey. Survey respondents include individuals, businesses, non-profit institutions, government entities, and other Board stakeholders.

Frequency: Event-generated.

Respondents: Individuals, businesses, non-profit institutions, government entities, and other Board stakeholders.

Total estimated number of respondents: 1,900.

Total estimated annual burden hours: 2,300.¹

Current actions: On August 18, 2023, the Board published a notice in the Federal Register (88 FR 56623) requesting public comment for 60 days on the extension, without revision, of the FR 1378. The comment period for this notice expired on October 17, 2023. The Board did not receive any comments.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Chris Coneeney, Director, Real Property Policy Division, at 202–208–2956, or by email at chris.coneeney@gsa.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On April 26, 2019, the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) published OMB memorandum M–19–16, “Centralized Mission Support Capabilities for the Federal Government” (available at <https://www.whitehouse.gov/wp-content/uploads/2019/04/M-19-16.pdf>). Mission support business standards, established and agreed to by the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Act agencies, using the Federal Integrated Business Framework website at <https://ussm.gsa.gov/fibf/>, enable the Federal Government to better coordinate on the decision-making needed to determine what mission support services can be adopted and commonly shared. These business standards are an essential first step towards agreement on outcomes, data, and cross-functional end-to-end processes that will drive economies of scale and leverage the government’s buying power. The business standards will be used as the foundation for common mission support services shared by the CFO Act agencies.

GSA serves as the real property management business standards lead on the Business Standards Council. The goal of the real property management business standards is to drive real estate management consistency, equity and standardization across the Federal Government.

This year’s updates reflect changes as a result of the business information exchange with the Financial Management shared service functional area and as a result of the environmental scan of recent laws, executive orders and other policy changes. The data elements, scenarios, use cases, and functions, activities and business capabilities artifacts were all updated.

GSA is seeking public feedback on the annual update to the business standards, including comments on the understandability of the standards, suggested changes and usefulness of the draft standards to industry and agencies.

Guiding questions in the standards development include:

- Do the draft business standards appropriately document the business processes covered?
- Are the draft business standards easy to understand?
- Will your organization be able to show how your solutions or services, or both, can meet these draft business standards?
- What would you change about the draft business standards? Is there anything missing?

Comments will be used in the formulation of the final real property management business standards.

Krystal J. Brumfield,

Associate Administrator, Office of Government-wide Policy, U.S. General Services Administration.
