SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

On November 14, 2023, the Federal Register published a notice of proposed rulemaking and partial withdrawal of notice of proposed rulemaking (REG– 132422–17) at 88 FR 78134 (the proposed regulations). The proposed regulations that are the subject of this correction are issued under sections 861, 985 through 989, and 1502 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Need for Correction

As published, the preamble to the proposed regulations contains errors that may prove to be misleading. This document provides a technical correction to the preamble, which clarifies the misleading paragraph.

Correction of Publication

Accordingly, the publication of the proposed regulations (REG–132422–17), which was the subject of FR Doc. 2023–24649, published on November 14, 2023, is corrected on page 78156, in the third column, by revising the first full paragraph to read, “Taxpayers may rely on the proposed regulations (and so much of the final regulations as would not be modified by the proposed regulations) for taxable years ending after November 9, 2023, provided the taxpayer and each member of its consolidated group and section 987 electing group consistently follow the proposed regulations in their entirety and in a consistent manner. Additionally, for taxable years ending after November 9, 2023, and beginning on or before December 31, 2024, taxpayers may rely on only the applicability date provisions in proposed §§ 1.861–9(g)(2)(v), 1.985–5(g), 1.987–14(a), (c), and (d), 1.988–1(i), 1.988–4(b)(2)(ii), and 1.989(a)–1(b)(4) and (d)(4), provided that: (1) the taxpayer and each member of its consolidated group and section 987 electing group consistently follow those provisions in their entirety and in a consistent manner for those taxable years; (2) with respect to any terminating QBU to which proposed § 1.987–14(a)(2) would apply or partnership to which proposed § 1.987–14(a)(3) would apply, the taxpayer and each member of its consolidated group and section 987 electing group consistently follow all of the proposed regulations (and so much of the final regulations as would not be modified by the proposed regulations) in their entirety and in a consistent manner; and (3) to the extent that, under proposed § 1.987–14(c), proposed § 1.987–10 would be applied in lieu of prior § 1.987–10, the taxpayer and each member of its consolidated group and section 987 electing group consistently follow proposed § 1.987–10 in its entirety and in a consistent manner. Thus, for example, a calendar year taxpayer that has consistently followed the method described in the 1991 proposed regulations could continue to follow that method for the 2024 taxable year in reliance on proposed § 1.987–14(a)(1) (and would not need to follow the other parts of the proposed regulations, except to the extent provided in the prior sentence).”
