

stability and durability, potentially reducing the frequency of booster shots.

- Platform for Future Vaccine

Development: The stabilization techniques used in this technology could be applied to other vaccine formulations, paving the way for more robust and effective vaccines against various pathogens.

- Competitive Advantages:

- Provides enhanced stability and efficacy in norovirus VLP vaccines, ensuring effectiveness even in individuals with strong immune responses who have previously shown limited vaccine response.

- Its innovative design increases the VLPs' resistance to degradation, offering a more durable and reliable option for large-scale immunization programs.

- Development Stage:

- Pre-Clinical.
