

(“CME Bitcoin Futures ETPs”). Do commenters agree that arguments to support the listing of CME Bitcoin Futures ETPs apply equally to the Shares? Are there particular features related to ether and its ecosystem, including its proof of stake consensus mechanism and concentration of control or influence by a few individuals or entities, that raise unique concerns about ether futures’ susceptibility to fraud and manipulation?

3. What are commenters’ views on whether the proposed Trust and Shares would be susceptible to manipulation? What are commenters’ views generally on whether the Exchange’s proposal is designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices?

4. Based on data and analysis provided by the Exchange,¹⁸ do commenters agree with the Exchange that the CME represents a regulated market of significant size related to the holdings of the Trust?¹⁹ Do commenters agree with the Exchange that trading in the Shares would not be the predominant influence on prices in the CME ether futures market?²⁰

5. The Exchange states that several exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”) registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 that hold ether futures contracts have filed registration statements with the Commission and that these ETFs would offer identical exposure to the Trust.²¹ The Exchange asserts that “if the Commission allows these ETFs to begin trading, then it should also approve the Trust for trading.”²² Do commenters agree? Why or why not?

III. Procedure: Request for Written Comments

The Commission requests that interested persons provide written submissions of their views, data, and arguments with respect to the issues identified above, as well as any other concerns they may have with the proposal. In particular, the Commission invites the written views of interested persons concerning whether the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) or any other provision of the Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder. Although there do not appear to be any issues relevant to approval or disapproval that would be facilitated by an oral presentation of views, data, and arguments, the Commission will consider, pursuant to

Rule 19b–4, any request for an opportunity to make an oral presentation.²³

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments regarding whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved by January 12, 2024. Any person who wishes to file a rebuttal to any other person’s submission must file that rebuttal by January 26, 2024.
