

living organ donors in their decision to pursue living donation.

Likely Respondents: Potential and actual living donors, transplant programs, medical and scientific organizations, and public organizations, including patient advocacy groups.

Burden Statement: Burden in this context means the time expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, disclose, or provide the information requested. This includes the time needed to review instructions; to develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purpose of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; to train personnel and to be able to respond to a collection of information; to search data sources; to complete and review the collection of information; and to transmit or otherwise disclose the information. The total annual burden hours estimated for this ICR are summarized in the table below.

TOTAL ESTIMATED ANNUALIZED BURDEN HOURS

Form name	Number of respondents	Number of responses per respondent	Total responses	Average burden per response (in hours)	Total burden hours
Potential Living Donor Registration Form	^a 16	^c 112	^c 1,792	^e 0.27	484
Potential Living Donor Follow-up Form	^b 754	1	^d 754	^f 0.50	377
Reasons Did Not Donate Form (Liver or Kidney)	^a 16	^c 106	^c 1,696	^g 0.23	390
Total	^a 786	4,242	1,251

^a Number of respondents is based on the current number of transplant programs and is likely to increase as additional programs decide to participate.

^b Number of living donor candidates that submitted follow-up forms in 2019.

^c Derived from the number of forms submitted by transplant programs in 2019.

^d Total number of Living Donor Collective follow-up forms submitted by living donor candidates in 2019.

^e Based on a 2019 survey of transplant programs submitting data to the Living Donor Collective.

^f Based on internal testing and user feedback.

^g Based on discussion and interviews with staff at participating transplant programs in 2019–2020.
