AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Commission hereby gives notice that it has instituted a review pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act"), as amended, to determine whether revocation of the antidumping duty order on large residential washers ("LRWs") from Mexico would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury. ### SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.—On February 15, 2013, the Department of Commerce ("Commerce") issued antidumping duty orders covering LRWs from Korea and Mexico and a countervailing duty order covering LRWs from Korea (78 FR 11148 and 78 FR 11154, February 15, 2013). Following the five-year reviews by Commerce and the Commission, effective February 15, 2018, Commerce revoked the antidumping and countervailing duty orders on imports of LRWs from Korea (84 FR 19764, May 6, 2019). Commerce issued a continuation of the antidumping duty order covering LRWs from Mexico, effective May 6, 2019 (84 FR 19764). The Commission is now conducting a second review pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)), to determine whether revocation of the order would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to the domestic industry within a reasonably foreseeable time. Provisions concerning the conduct of this proceeding may be found in the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure at 19 CFR part 201, subparts A and B, and 19 CFR part 207, subparts A and F. The Commission will assess the adequacy of interested party responses to this notice of institution to determine whether to conduct a full review or an expedited review. The Commission's determination in any expedited review will be based on the facts available, which may include information provided in response to this notice.

Definitions.—The following definitions apply to this review:

(1) Subject Merchandise is the class or kind of merchandise that is within the scope of the five-year review, as defined by Commerce.

(2) The Subject Country in this review is Mexico.

(3) The Domestic Like Product is the domestically produced product or products which are like, or in the absence of like, most similar in characteristics and uses with, the Subject Merchandise. In its original determinations and its full first five-year review determinations, the Commission defined the Domestic Like Product as LRWs described by the scope and top load washers with a capacity of less than 3.7 cubic feet.
