

that serves as the record upon which PTE 2016–11 was proposed and granted, that are relevant to that application or the technical corrections set forth herein, other than changes in Northern Trust's numbers of clients and assets managed. In addition, the Applicant represents that Northern Trust is and has been subject to a variety of legal proceedings, including civil claims and lawsuits, regulatory examinations, investigations, audits, and requests for information by various governmental regulatory agencies and law enforcement authorities in various jurisdictions. To the best of its knowledge at this time, however, Northern Trust does not believe that the outcome of any current investigation would cause the exemption to be unavailable. Moreover, the Applicant represents that no affiliate of Northern Trust has been convicted of any crime described in section I(g) of the QPAM Exemption and, to the best of Northern Trust's knowledge, neither Northern Trust nor any affiliate has entered into a deferred prosecution agreement (DPA) or non-prosecution agreement (NPA) since February 29, 2016.

The Department notes that it is making this technical correction based upon Northern Trust's certified representation that since February 29, 2016: (1) there have in fact been no material changes other than those changes noted above; (2) no affiliate of Northern Trust has been convicted of any crime described in section I(g) of the QPAM Exemption, other than the conviction covered under PTE 2016–11 as corrected herein; (3) neither Northern Trust nor any of its affiliates have entered into a DPA or NPA; and (4) to the best of its knowledge at this time, Northern Trust does not believe that the outcome of any current investigation by any of the various governmental regulatory agencies and law enforcement authorities in various jurisdictions would cause the exemption to be unavailable. If, at any time, Northern Trust discovers that any of these representations are no longer true, Northern Trust must immediately contact the Department and separately submit a written statement that provides the Department with the complete details on the circumstances discovered that led any representations to become untrue.

The Department is not taking a position on whether the outcome of any proceedings will cause the exemption to be unavailable and also notes that the availability of PTE 2016–11 is conditioned upon Northern Trust's compliance with all of the conditions included therein, including the condition that expressly states: "During the effective period of this temporary exemption, Northern Trust: (1) Immediately discloses to the Department any DPA or NPA that Northern Trust enters into with the U.S. Department of Justice, to the extent such DPA or NPA involves conduct described in Section I(g) of PTE 84–14 or section 411 of ERISA." As noted in the preceding paragraph, if Northern Trust discovers that Northern Trust or any of its affiliates have entered into a DPA or NPA at any time on or after February 29, 2016, Northern Trust must inform the Department promptly upon Northern Trust or its affiliates' discovery of such fact.

Furthermore, if Northern Trust later submits an exemption application requesting longer term exemptive relief from Section I(g) of PTE 84–14 due to the Conviction, the Department would consider relevant any legal proceedings, including civil claims and lawsuits, regulatory examinations, investigations, audits, and requests for information by various governmental regulatory agencies and law enforcement authorities in various jurisdictions that may be pending at that time notwithstanding whether such proceedings would trigger ineligibility. In this regard, any such proceedings would be relevant to the Department's analysis of whether the Northern Trust QPAMs (and those who may be in a position to influence the QPAMs' policies) maintain the high standard of integrity required to operate as a QPAM.

Technical Correction

Section II(a) of PTE 2016–11 is corrected to read as follows:

"(a) The term "Conviction" means the judgment of conviction against NTFS for aiding and abetting tax fraud entered in France in the Court of Appeal, French Special Prosecutor No. 1120392066, French Investigative Judge No. JIRSIF/11/12 or another court of competent jurisdiction."

Signed at Washington, DC.
