

7. For eligibility purposes, a “U.S. organization” is an organization established under the laws of the United States, that is controlled by U.S. citizens, by another U.S. organization (or organizations), or by a U.S. entity (or entities), determined based on its board of directors (or comparable governing body), membership, and funding sources, as applicable. To qualify as a U.S. organization, more than 50 percent of the board of directors (or comparable governing body) and more than 50 percent of the membership of the organization to be represented must be U.S. citizens, U.S. organizations, or U.S. entities. Additionally, at least 50 percent of the organization’s annual revenue must be attributable to nongovernmental U.S. sources.

8. For members who will serve in an individual capacity, the person must possess subject matter expertise regarding international trade issues.

In order to be considered for Committee membership, interested persons should submit the following to the Office of Intergovernmental Affairs and Public Engagement at MBX.USTR.IAPE@USTR.EOP.GOV:

- Name, title, affiliation, and contact information of the individual requesting consideration.
- If applicable, a sponsor letter on the organization’s letterhead containing a brief description of the manner in which international trade affects the organization and why USTR should consider the applicant for membership.
- The applicant’s personal resume.
- An affirmative statement that the applicant and the organization they represent meet all eligibility requirements.

USTR will consider applicants who meet the eligibility criteria in accordance with equal opportunity practices that promote diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility, based on the following factors:

- Ability to represent the sponsoring U.S. entity’s or U.S. organization’s and its subsector’s interests on trade matters.
- Knowledge of and experience in U.S. trade policy that affects the competitiveness of Southeastern U.S. producers of seasonal and perishable agricultural products trade and environmental matters, as described in more detail in Part II above, that is relevant to the work of the Committee, USTR and USDA.
- How they will contribute to trade policies that eliminate social and economic structural barriers to equality and economic opportunity and to understanding of the projected impact of proposed trade policies on communities of color and underserved communities.

- Ensuring that the Committee is balanced in terms of points of view, demographics, geography, and entity or organization size.

Roberto Soberanis,

Assistant U.S. Trade Representative for Intergovernmental Affairs and Public Engagement, Office of the United States Trade Representative.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), Federal agencies must obtain approval from the OMB for each collection of information that they conduct or sponsor.

“Collection of information” is defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502(3) and 5 CFR 1320.3(c) to include agency requests or requirements that members of the public submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of title 44 generally requires Federal agencies to provide a 60-day notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each proposed extension of an existing collection of information, before submitting the collection to OMB for approval. To comply with this requirement, the OCC is publishing notice of the revision of this collection.

Title: Reporting and Recordkeeping Requirements Associated with Liquidity Coverage Ratio: Liquidity Risk Measurement, Standards, and Monitoring. OMB Control No.: 1557–0323.

Type of Review: Regular.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profit.

Description: The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Board), and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) (collectively, the agencies) implemented a quantitative liquidity requirement, known as the liquidity coverage ratio (LCR), and a stable funding requirement, known as the net stable funding ratio (NSFR), that apply to certain large banking organizations. For the OCC, these standards are implemented through 12 CFR part 50, Liquidity Risk Measurement Standards. The LCR is designed to promote the short-term resilience of the liquidity risk profile of covered banking organizations and promote improvements in the measurement and management of liquidity risk. The NSFR is designed to reduce the likelihood that disruptions to a banking organization’s regular sources of funding will compromise its liquidity position, promote effective liquidity risk management, and support the ability of banking organizations to provide financial intermediation to businesses and households across a range of market conditions.

Twelve CFR part 50 applies to large national banks and Federal savings associations. Banks that must comply with part 50 (covered banks) generally include GSIB depository institutions (i.e., depository institutions of global systemically important bank holding companies) supervised by the OCC; Category II national banks and Federal savings associations; Category III national banks and Federal savings associations;¹ and any national bank or Federal savings association for which the OCC has determined that application of part 50 is appropriate in light of certain risk factors. The reporting and recordkeeping requirements contained in this collection are used to monitor covered banks’ compliance with the LCR and NSFR.

The OCC proposes to revise the “Reporting and Recordkeeping Requirements Associated with the Liquidity Coverage Ratio: Liquidity Risk Measurement, Standards, and Monitoring” information collection to account for three recordkeeping requirements in part 50, contained in sections 50.4(a), 50.22(a)(1) and (a)(4), that had not been previously cleared by the OCC under the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA).

Section-by-Section Analysis

The reporting and recordkeeping requirements are found in sections 50.4, 50.22, 50.40, 50.109, and 50.110.

Reporting Requirements

Section 50.40(a) requires a covered bank to notify the OCC on any business day when its LCR is calculated to be less than the minimum requirement set by section 50.10.

Section 50.40(b) provides that if a covered bank is required to calculate its LCR on the last business day of each calendar month and its LCR is below the minimum requirement in section 50.10 on the last business day of the applicable calendar month, or if the OCC has determined that the covered bank is otherwise materially noncompliant, then the covered bank must promptly consult with the OCC to determine whether the covered bank must provide to the OCC a plan for achieving compliance with the minimum liquidity requirement in section 50.10 and all other requirements of part 50. Section 50.40(b) further provides that if a covered bank is required to calculate its LCR each business day and its LCR is below the minimum requirement in section 50.10 for three consecutive business days, or if the OCC has determined that the covered bank is otherwise materially noncompliant, the covered bank must promptly provide to the OCC a plan for achieving compliance with the minimum liquidity requirement in section 50.10 and all other requirements of part 50.

The liquidity plan must include, as applicable, (1) an assessment of the covered bank’s liquidity position; (2) the actions the covered bank has taken and will take to achieve full compliance, including a plan for adjusting the covered bank’s risk profile, risk management, and funding sources in order to achieve full compliance and a plan for remediating any operational or management issues that contributed to noncompliance; (3) an estimated time frame for achieving full compliance; and (4) a commitment to provide a progress report to the OCC at least weekly until full compliance is achieved.

Section 50.110 requires a covered bank to take certain actions following any NSFR shortfall. Section 50.110(a) requires a covered bank to notify the OCC of the shortfall no later than 10 business days (or such other period as the OCC may otherwise require by written notice) following the date that any event has occurred that would cause or has caused the covered bank’s NSFR to be less than 1.0.

Section 50.110(b) requires a covered bank to submit to the OCC, within 10 business days of certain triggering events (or such other period as the OCC may otherwise require by written notice), its plan for remediation of its NSFR to at least 1.0. This submission is required if the covered bank has or should have provided notice to the OCC that its NSFR is or will become less than 1.0, the covered bank’s reports or disclosures to the OCC indicate that the NSFR is less than 1.0, or the OCC notifies the covered bank that a plan is required and provides a reason for requiring such a plan. Section 50.110(b) also requires a covered bank that has submitted such a plan to report to the OCC at least monthly, or at such other frequency as required by the OCC, on its progress to achieve compliance.

The NSFR remediation plan must include, as applicable, (1) an assessment of the covered bank’s liquidity profile; (2) the actions the covered bank has taken and will take to achieve a net stable funding ratio equal to or greater than 1.0 as required under section 50.100, including (a) a plan for adjusting the covered bank’s liquidity profile; (b) a plan for remediating any operational or management issues that contributed to noncompliance with the NSFR requirement; and (3) an estimated time frame for achieving full compliance with section 50.100.

Recordkeeping Requirements

Section 50.4(a)(1) provides that in order for a covered bank to recognize an agreement as a qualifying master netting agreement for the purpose of section 50.3, the covered bank must conduct a sufficient legal review to conclude with a well-founded basis (and maintain sufficient written documentation of that legal review) that: (i) the agreement meets the requirements of the definition of qualifying master netting agreement in section 50.3 and (ii) in the event of a legal challenge, the relevant judicial and administrative authorities would find the agreement to be legal, valid, binding, and enforceable under the law of the relevant jurisdictions.

Section 50.4(a)(2) also requires a covered bank to establish and maintain written procedures to monitor possible changes in relevant law and to ensure that the agreement continues to satisfy the requirements of the definition of qualifying master netting agreement in section 50.3.

Section 50.22(a)(1) requires a covered bank to demonstrate the operational capability to monetize the bank's HQLA (i.e., high-quality liquid assets) by implementing and maintaining procedures and systems to monetize any HQLA at any time in accordance with relevant standard settlement periods and procedures and periodically monetizing a sample of the HQLA that reflects the composition of the covered bank's eligible HQLA.

Section 50.22(a)(2) requires a covered bank to implement policies that require the eligible HQLA to be under the control of the management function in the covered bank that is charged with managing liquidity risk. The management function must evidence its control over the HQLA by segregating the HQLA from other assets, with the sole intent to use the HQLA as a source of liquidity, or by demonstrating the ability to monetize the assets and making the proceeds available to the liquidity management function without conflicting with a business or risk management strategy of the covered bank.

Section 50.22(a)(4) requires a covered bank to implement and maintain policies and procedures that determine the composition of its eligible HQLA on each calculation date by identifying, determining, and ensuring certain required steps.

Section 50.22(a)(5) requires a covered bank to have a documented methodology that results in a consistent treatment for determining that the covered bank's eligible HQLA meets the requirements of section 50.22.

Section 50.109(b) provides that if a covered bank includes an ASF (i.e., available stable funding) amount in excess of the RSF (i.e., required stable funding) amount of the consolidated subsidiary, it must implement and maintain written procedures to identify and monitor applicable statutory, regulatory, contractual, supervisory, or other restrictions on transferring assets from the consolidated subsidiaries. These procedures must document which types of transactions the institution could use to transfer assets from a consolidated subsidiary to the institution and how these types of transactions comply with applicable statutory, regulatory, contractual, supervisory, or other restrictions.

Estimated Burden

Estimated Frequency of Response: On occasion, annual.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 15.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 735 hours.

Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and included in the request for OMB approval. All comments will become a matter of public record. Comments are invited on:

(a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the OCC, including whether the information has practical utility;

(b) The accuracy of the OCC's estimate of the burden of the collection of information;

(c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;

(d) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and

(e) Estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.
