

also requires that air quality records include specified information, and that employers maintain the records until the underground construction project is complete. They must also make the records available to OSHA compliance officers on request.

Maintaining records of air quality tests allows employers to document atmospheric hazards, ascertain the effectiveness of controls (especially ventilation) and implement additional controls if necessary. Accordingly, these requirements prevent serious injury and death to workers who work on underground construction projects. In addition, these records provide an efficient means for workers to evaluate the accuracy and effectiveness of an employer's exposure reduction program, and for OSHA compliance officers to determine those employers performed the required tests and implemented appropriate controls.

II. Special Issues for Comment

OSHA has a particular interest in comments on the following issues:

- Whether the proposed information collection requirements are necessary for the proper performance of the agency's functions to protect workers, including whether the information is useful;
- The accuracy of OSHA's estimate of the burden (time and costs) of the information collection requirements, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- The quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and
- Ways to minimize the burden on employers who must comply; for example, by using automated or other technological information, and transmission techniques.

III. Proposed Actions

OSHA is requesting that OMB extend the approval of the information collection requirements contained in Underground Construction Standard. The agency is requesting an adjustment increase in burden hours from 77,616 hours to 77,618 hours, a difference of 2 hours. This slight increase is due the result of a rounding inconsistency.

OSHA will summarize the comments submitted in response to this notice and will include this summary in the request to OMB to extend the approval of the information collection requirements.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Introduction

The NRC is reviewing an exemption request from Constellation, dated April 5, 2024. Constellation is requesting an exemption, pursuant to section 72.7 of title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations (10 CFR), in paragraphs 72.212(a)(2), 72.212(b)(3), 72.212(b)(5)(i), 72.212(b)(11), and 72.214 that require Constellation to comply with the terms, conditions, and specifications of the CoC No. 1032, Amendment No. 1, Revision No. 1. If approved, the exemption would allow Constellation to maintain three loaded and to load five new MPC–89–CBS in the HI–STORM FW MPC Storage System at the LGS ISFSI in a storage condition where the terms, conditions, and specifications in the CoC No. 1032, Amendment No. 1, Revision No. 1, are not met.

II. Environmental Assessment

Background

The LGS is located in Limerick Township of Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, 1.7 miles (2.7 kilometers) southeast of the Borough of Pottstown. Unit 1 began operating in 1986 and Unit 2 began operating in 1990. Constellation has been storing spent fuel in an ISFSI at the LGS under a general license as authorized by 10 CFR part 72, subpart K, “General License for Storage of Spent Fuel at Power Reactor Sites.” Constellation currently uses the HI–STORM FW MPC Storage System under CoC No. 1032, Amendment No. 1, Revision No. 1, for dry storage of spent nuclear fuel in a specific MPC (i.e., MPC–89) at the LGS ISFSI.

Description of the Proposed Action

The CoC is the NRC approved design for each dry cask storage system. The proposed action would exempt the applicant from the requirements of 10 CFR 72.212(a)(2), 72.212(b)(3), 72.212(b)(5)(i), 72.212(b)(11), and 72.214 only as these requirements pertain to the use of the MPC–89–CBS in the HI–STORM FW MPC Storage System for the three already loaded systems and the near-term planned loading of five new canisters. The exemption would allow Constellation to maintain loaded and to load five new MPC–89–CBS in the HI–STORM FW MPC Storage System at the LGS ISFSI, despite the MPC–89–CBS in the HI–STORM FW MPC Storage System not being in compliance with the terms, conditions, and specifications in the CoC No. 1032, Amendment No. 1, Revision No. 1.

The HI–STORM FW MPC Storage System CoC provides the requirements,
