DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

Federal Emergency Management Agency

[Docket ID FEMA-2023-0027]

Programmatic/Class Floodplain Review Procedures for Specific Preparedness Grant Projects

AGENCY: Federal Emergency Management Agency, Department of Homeland Security.

ACTION: Final notice.

SUMMARY: On October 4, 2023, FEMA published a notice requesting public comment on its determination that a programmatic/class review is appropriate for six categories of activities, in specific grant programs that do not have an adverse impact, individually or cumulatively, on floodplain values placing property and persons at risk. FEMA received no comments and is now publishing final notice of its determination in compliance with Federal regulations.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Frederick Holycross, Coordinator, Grant Programs Directorate, Environmental Planning and Historic Preservation, FEMA, frederick.holycross@fema.dhs.gov, or 202-812-4938.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

FEMA's floodplain management regulations are found at 44 CFR part 9. Part 9 sets forth the policy, procedure, and responsibilities to implement and enforce Executive Order 11988, Floodplain Management.¹ Part 9 sets forth an eight-step process which FEMA must follow when taking actions in floodplains² which have the potential to affect floodplains or their occupants, or which are subject to potential harm by location in floodplains.³ FEMA completes the eight-step process for each action it is taking in a floodplain as part of the comprehensive environmental and historic preservation (EHP) compliance reviews that are required for all projects funded under its disaster and non-disaster grant programs.⁴

¹ "This regulation sets forth the policy, procedure, and responsibilities to implement and

For such actions, FEMA is required to take the following steps: (1) determine whether the proposed action is located in the 100-year floodplain (500-year floodplain for critical actions), and whether it has the potential to affect or be affected by the floodplain;⁵ (2) notify the public at the earliest possible time of the intent to carry out an action in a floodplain, and involve the affected and interested public in the decision-making process; (3) identify and evaluate practicable alternatives to locating the proposed action in a floodplain (including alternative sites, actions and the "no action" option); (4) identify the potential direct and indirect impacts associated with the occupancy or modification of floodplains and the potential direct and indirect support of floodplain development that could result from the proposed action; (5) minimize the potential adverse impacts and support to or within floodplains to be identified under Step 4, restore and preserve the natural and beneficial values served by floodplains; (6) reevaluate the proposed action to determine first, if it is still practicable in light of its exposure to flood hazards, the extent to which it will aggravate the hazards to others, and its potential to disrupt floodplain values and second, if alternatives preliminarily rejected at Step 3 are practicable in light of the information gained in Steps 4 and 5; (7) prepare and provide the public with a finding and public explanation of any final decision that the floodplain is the only practicable alternative; and (8) enforce Executive Order 11988, Floodplain Management, and Executive Order 11990, Protection of Wetlands." 44 CFR 9.1.

² The 8-step process set forth in 44 CFR part 9 also governs agency actions that take place in wetlands.

³ 44 CFR 9.5(a)(1).

⁴ See generally FEMA's website at Environmental Planning and Historic Preservation for a description of the EHP process and the applicable regulations, directives, and legal mandates which govern it. (Last accessed on April 12, 2024.)

⁵ Any project considered for streamlined process will also be subject to a determination of whether the proposed action is located in a wetland and/or floodplain.
