All applicants must represent one of the constituencies specified below in order to be eligible for appointment. ASAC's mission is to provide advice and recommendations to the TSA Administrator on improving aviation security matters, including developing, refining, and implementing policies, programs, rulemakings, and security directives pertaining to aviation security, while adhering to sensitive security guidelines.

DATES: Applications for membership

- Mail: Tamika McCree Elhilali, ASAC Designated Federal Officer, Transportation Security Administration (TSA-28), 6595 Springfield Center Drive, Springfield, VA 20598-6028.

The ASAC will send you an email that confirms receipt of your application and will notify you of the final status of your application once TSA selects

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Tamika McCree Elhilali, ASAC

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The ASAC is an advisory committee established pursuant to 49 U.S.C. 44946. The committee is composed of individual members representing 19 key constituencies affected by aviation security requirements, as defined at 49 U.S.C. 44946(c)(1)(C).

This request for applications is limited to specific membership categories. Consistent with applicable law, TSA is committed to pursuing opportunities to appoint a committee that reflects the diversity of the United States. The following list provides the key constituencies and identifies with an asterisk (*) the constituencies for whom the current representative's term is expiring:

1. Air carriers.
2. All-cargo air transportation.*
3. Labor organizations representing air carrier employees (3 vacancies).*
4. Aircraft manufacturers.*
5. Airport operators.*
6. General aviation.*
7. Travel industry.*
8. Victims of terrorist acts against aviation.*
9. Law enforcement and security a category may change to fit the needs of the Committee. As required by the statute, however, individuals selected on the ASAC may not represent more than 34 member organizations.

Appointees will be designated as Representative members. Representative members speak for the key constituency group they represent. Membership on ASAC is personal to the appointee and a member may not send an alternate to a Committee meeting. Pursuant to 49 U.S.C. 44946(c)(3), members shall not receive pay, allowances, or benefits

Committee Meetings

The ASAC typically convenes four participate on ASAC subcommittees that typically meet more frequently to deliberate and discuss specific aviation matters.

Committee Membership

Committee members are appointed by, and serve at the pleasure of, the TSA a successor is appointed. Members who are currently serving on the Committee are eligible to reapply for membership (a new application is required).

the TSA Administrator for appointment enrollment, coordinating a visit to an enrollment center, and the in-person visit to the enrollment center.

Non-U.S. applicants presented for appointment to ASAC will be required to complete additional vetting. This vetting will include the completion and submission of TSA Form 2816B form,
