DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[CPCLO Order No. 002-2024]

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: Executive Office for United States Attorneys, United States Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of a new system of records.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 and Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A-108, notice is hereby given that the Executive Office for United States Attorneys (hereinafter, EOUSA) and the Office of Justice Programs (hereinafter, OJP), components within the United States Department of Justice (DOJ or Department), propose to develop a new system of records notice titled Child Pornography Victims Reserve Records, JUSTICE/USA-020. EOUSA and OJP propose to establish this system of records to administer the Child Pornography Victims Reserve, as required under The Amy, Vicky, and Andy Child Pornography Victim Assistance Act of 2018.

DATES: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), this notice is applicable upon publication, subject to a 30-day period in which to comment on the routine uses, described below. Please submit any comments by June 20, 2024.

ADDRESSES: The public, OMB, and Congress are invited to submit any comments by mail to the United States Department of Justice, Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties, ATTN: Privacy Analyst, 2 Constitution Square, 145 N Street Northeast, Suite 8W.300, Washington, District of Columbia, 20530; by facsimile at 202-307-0693; or by email at privacy@usdoj.gov. To ensure proper handling, please reference the above CPCLO Order No. on your correspondence.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Karen Rolley, Attorney-Advisor, Executive Office for United States Attorneys, 175 N Street NE, Office of Legal Programs, Washington, DC 20530, karen.rolley@usdoj.gov, 202-252-5866.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under Federal law, victims of child pornography offenses are entitled to full and timely restitution from defendants charged and convicted in Federal court, including restitution for losses caused by conduct such as the possession, receipt, viewing, transportation, and distribution of these images. Restitution is imposed upon an individual criminal defendant by a Federal court at the time of sentencing, and the obligation to pay restitution is part of the defendant's criminal sentence. The Federal Government bears the burden of proving that the defendant owes restitution to a victim, although a defendant can agree to pay restitution as part of a plea agreement.

The Amy, Vicky, and Andy Child Pornography Victim Assistance Act of 2018 ("AVAA") created an alternative system to allow victims of trafficking in child pornography to obtain some measure of compensation (called "defined monetary assistance") without having to prove their losses. For this purpose, the AVAA established the Child Pornography Victims Reserve ("Reserve") to provide defined monetary assistance to eligible individuals who are depicted in child pornography that is the basis for certain convictions under 18 U.S.C. chapter 110. Under the terms of the statute, victims of these types of child pornography offenses can choose whether to present their full restitution claims in court through prosecutors, as is currently done, or to obtain a one-time payment of defined monetary assistance. The determination regarding victim eligibility for the payment is made by the court. The Act provides that the "Attorney General shall administer" this Reserve; therefore, the Department will provide payment from the Reserve to a victim pursuant to a court order issued, upon receipt of the order and the requisite information from the claimant.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and Congress on this new system of records.

Dated: May 15, 2024.
