SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: The President's Council on Sports, Fitness & Nutrition (PCSFN) is a Federal advisory committee with a mission to promote healthy eating and physical activity for all people, regardless of background or ability. The Council gives out awards to recognize individuals or organizations for their contributions to the advancement or promotion of physical activity, fitness, sports, or nutrition. Lifetime Achievement Awards and Community Leadership Awards were awarded annually between 2007–2016 and again in 2019. In 2024, the Council is updating the awards and adding a third category. The Lifetime Achievement Award will now be known as the Lifetime Impact Award, and the PCSFN Hero Award has been added. There are no changes to the Community Leadership Award. Awards will be distributed in fall 2024.

For instructions on how to nominate yourself or someone else, please visit <https://health.gov/pcsfn/programs-awards>.

Lifetime Impact Award: The President's Council on Sports, Fitness & Nutrition Lifetime Impact Award celebrates individuals whose careers have greatly contributed to the advancement or promotion of physical activity, fitness, sports, or nutrition nationwide. This year, the Council will honor up to 5 individuals with this award.

Factors considered in the selection process include:

- Alignment to the PCSFN mission to promote healthy eating and physical activity for all people, regardless of background or ability
- Span and scope of career
 - Length of service to the field
 - Quantitative impact of individual's work
 - Qualitative legacy of individual's work

Community Leadership Award: The President's Council on Sports, Fitness & Nutrition Community Leadership Award celebrates leaders who are building more vibrant and thriving communities through sports, physical activity, fitness, and nutrition-related programs. This year's Community Leadership Awards will honor up to 20 individuals or organizations working to uplift their communities, contributing to the community's overall well-being, and supporting all community members' potential to thrive. The word "community" may refer to an organization, sports league or team, business, city, or community-based group.

Factors considered in the selection process include:

- Alignment with the PCSFN mission to promote healthy eating and physical activity for all people, regardless of background or ability
- Lived or living experience with demonstrated knowledge and service to the community
- Overall impact on the community including demonstration of putting community learning into action through novel or innovative means to fill gaps within the community and reach those who aren't being reached through other efforts
- Description of meaningful achievements and consistent success in improving community health and wellbeing

PCSFN Hero Award: The President's Council on Sports, Fitness & Nutrition (PCSFN) Hero Award celebrates high profile individuals (e.g., influencers) who champion sports, physical activity, fitness, or nutrition and amplify messages that support the Council's mission to broad audiences. This year's PCSFN Hero Awards will honor up to 20 individuals.

Factors considered in the selection process include:

- Alignment with PCSFN mission to promote healthy eating and physical activity for all people, regardless of background or ability
- Reach of the individual's work as defined by presence and attention on outreach networks and platforms and demonstration of novel approaches to reach more than one community
- Approach to innovation to fill gaps within their domain and reach those who aren't being reached through other efforts
- Sphere of influence, including quantitative and qualitative descriptions of impact or change made as a result of the nominee's efforts information will be posted on the SAMHSA website prior to the meeting at: https://www.samhsa.gov/about-us/advisory-councils/meetings. The meeting's focus will be on the draft report of the ISUDCC's recommendations on how the Federal Government can further integrate and coordinate harm reduction approaches and strategies across the continuum of prevention, treatment, and recovery policies, programs, and practices. This meeting will also include presentations on the recently released Harm Reduction Framework, the Naloxone Saturation Academies, and SAMHSA's Overdose Prevention and Response Toolkit.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background and Authority

The Interdepartmental Substance Use Disorders Coordinating Committee is required under Section 7022 of the Substance Use-Disorder Prevention that Promotes Opioid Recovery and Treatment for Patients and Communities Act (SUPPORT Act, Pub. L. 115-271) to accomplish the following duties: (1) identify areas for improved coordination of activities, if any, related to substance use disorders, including research, services, supports, and prevention activities across all relevant federal agencies; (2) identify and provide to the Secretary recommendations for improving federal programs for the prevention and treatment of, and recovery from, substance use disorders, including by expanding access to
prevention, treatment, and recovery services; (3) analyze substance use disorder prevention and treatment strategies in different regions of and populations in the United States and evaluate the extent to which federal substance use disorder prevention and treatment strategies are aligned with State and local substance use disorder prevention and treatment strategies; (4) make recommendations to the Secretary regarding any appropriate changes with respect to the activities and strategies described in items (1) through (3) above; (5) make recommendations to the Secretary regarding public participation in decisions relating to substance use disorders and the process by which public feedback can be better integrated into such decisions; and (6) make recommendations to ensure that substance use disorder research,
services, supports, and prevention activities of the Department of Health and Human Services and other federal agencies are not unnecessarily duplicative.

Not later than one year after the date of the enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter for the life of the Committee, the Committee shall publish on the internet website of the Department of Health and Human Services, which may include the public information dashboard established under section 1711 of the Public Health Service Act, as added by section 7021, a report summarizing the activities carried out by the Committee pursuant to subsection (e), including any findings resulting from such activities.
