SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: FBOP is modifying this system of records to consolidate earlier modifications of the system of records into one document to promote transparency. For a detailed list of previously published modifications, please review the "History" section below. Additionally, modifications to the system of records have been made to incorporate OMB guidance, technological advancements, and the modification of four (4) routine uses. Pursuant to OMB Circular No. A-108, various sections were rearranged, and various section titles were edited.

FBOP also has changed the "System Location" section by adding to the list of locations where records may be maintained contractor-operated correctional facilities, National Archive Centers, secure cloud computing environments, and contracted storage facilities. FBOP has updated the ADDRESSES section to reflect administrative changes. FBOP has made a slight change to the Purpose(s) of the System to add the Attorney General as one of the parties that this system assists. FBOP has updated the "Categories of Individuals Covered by the System" to clarify that it includes those individuals under custody for criminal and civil commitments. FBOP has updated the "Categories of Records" in the system to include additional identifying particulars and information regarding specific health conditions.

FBOP has added modified routine uses that: allow medical health care professionals to access former inmates' medical records for continuity of care purposes, and eliminating the requirement the records only be provided for pre-existing condition (see RU b); include specific mention of the United States Probation Office (see RU c); permit Members of Congress to request and receive records at the bequest of the authorized next-of-kin for inmates who are mentally or physically incapacitated (see RU g); and account for authorized disclosures related to Coronavirus-19 (SARS-CoV-2) and other unknown infectious diseases (see RU j). Additionally, previously published routine uses on breach procedures have been consolidated here to make them easier to find.

FBOP also has made a slight change in the “Policies and Practices for Storage of Records” section by adding a federally-authorized secure cloud as a location where files may be stored. FBOP has updated the “Policies and Practices for Retrieval of Records” section to include additional identifying particulars. FBOP had made an update to the “Administrative, Technical, and Physical Safeguards” section to clarify that access to data is facilitated via strong authentication and data is segregated to limit staff’s ability to update data absent authorization.

FBOP has updated the “Record Access Procedures,” “Contesting Record Procedures,” and “Notification Procedures” to include more detail on how one may access, contest, or receive notifications about records. Specifically, the “Records Access Procedures” section recognizes updated methods of record access for authorized next-of-kin, former inmates, and attorneys representing current and former inmates in criminal or civil matters.

FBOP continues to assert the same Privacy Act exemptions as previously published in the Federal Register. See 28 CFR 16.97(a) and (n).

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and Congress on this notice of a modified system of records.
