

751(c)(2) of the Act} instructs the agency to seek.”⁹ According to the CIT, because Archroma’s timely substantive response satisfied the request for substantive material pursuant to section 751(c)(2)(B) of the Act, the agency was obligated to conduct the sunset reviews of the Orders.¹⁰ Additionally, the CIT held that Commerce’s regulations at 19 CFR 351.218(d)(1), which sets the 15-day procedural deadline for a notice of intent to participate, violates section 751(c)(2)–(3) of the Act, because it removes from domestic interested parties the statutory right to submit substantive information in a sunset review if, as here, a timely notice of intent is not filed.¹¹ Consequently, the CIT issued a declaratory judgment and injunction, ordering Commerce to accept Archroma’s substantive response, and conduct full sunset reviews of the Orders.

Timken Notice

In its decision in Timken,¹² as clarified by Diamond Sawblades,¹³ the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit held that, pursuant to section 516A(c) and (e) of the Act, Commerce must publish a notice of court decision that is not “in harmony” with an agency determination and must suspend liquidation of entries pending a “conclusive” court decision. The CIT’s May 28, 2024, judgment constitutes a final decision that is not in harmony with Commerce’s Final Results. Thus, this notice is published in fulfillment of the publication requirements of Timken.

Reinstatement of Antidumping Duty Orders

Pursuant to the CIT’s May 28, 2024, final decision, Commerce is reinstating the Orders.

Reconduction of Sunset Reviews

Through this notice, we are notifying the public that Commerce is reconducting its sunset reviews of the Orders in accordance with the CIT’s judgment. Commerce will begin reconducting the sunset review on July 1, 2024, to coordinate with the U.S. International Trade Commission’s sunset reviews, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act.

Liquidation of Suspended Entries

At this time, Commerce remains enjoined by CIT order from liquidating entries of OBAs China and Taiwan that are or were entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after November 27, 2022. These entries will remain enjoined pursuant to the terms of the injunction during the pendency of any appeals process. In the event the CIT’s ruling is not appealed, or, if appealed, upheld by a final and conclusive court decision, Commerce intends to instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to assess antidumping duties on unliquidated entries of OBAs China and Taiwan that are or were entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after November 27, 2022, as appropriate.

Cash Deposit Rates

At this time, Commerce remains enjoined by CIT order to require cash deposits at a rate of zero percent for entries of OBAs from China and Taiwan that are or were entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after November 27, 2022. Upon a final and conclusive court decision in the litigation, Commerce intends to issue revised cash deposit instructions to CBP as appropriate.

Notification to Interested Parties

This notice is issued and published in accordance with sections 516A(c) and (e) and 777(i)(1) of the Act.

Dated: June 20, 2024.
