SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34–100416; File No. SR–NASDAQ–2024–027]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change To Reconfigure Fees for the Daily List and Fundamental Data to Better Reflect the Value of the Information Distributed

June 25, 2024.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”),<sup>1</sup> and Rule 19b–4 thereunder,<sup>2</sup> notice is hereby given that on June 17, 2024, The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq” or “Exchange”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC” or “Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III, below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to reconfigure fees for the Daily List and Fundamental Data to better reflect the value of the information distributed.

The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Exchange’s website at <https://listingcenter.nasdaq.com/rulebook/nasdaq/rules>, at the principal office of the Exchange, and at the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Nasdaq proposes to reconfigure fees for the Daily List,<sup>3</sup> its corporate actions product,<sup>4</sup> to better reflect the value of the information distributed.<sup>5</sup>

First, Nasdaq proposes to increase the licensing fee for the Daily List, which also includes Fundamental Data, from $1,750 to $3,500 per month to better reflect its market value. Current fees for the Daily List are below the range of fees for other corporate actions products, none of which, except for the Daily List, are subject to the fee filing requirements that apply to Self-Regulatory Organizations (“SROs”).<sup>6</sup> Current fees for comparable products are between $3,000 and $12,000 per month or more; the proposal will raise Daily List fees from below that range to within the range, at its lower end.<sup>7</sup>

Second, together with the proposed rule change, the Exchange will publish information about the execution of corporate actions by the Exchange, as well as information related to issuer status under Exchange rules, on NasdaqTrader.com or a successor website, at the same time as such information is updated on the Daily List. The dual publication of information on a public website and a corporate actions product is the same <sup>3</sup> See Equity 7, Section 122. The information contained in the Daily List includes information about the corporate actions of issuers (such as dividends, stock splits, and mergers and acquisitions), execution of corporate actions by the Exchange (such as execution dates and symbol changes), and information about issuer status.

<sup>4</sup> Corporate actions are undertakings by issuers that materially impact the value of their shares, such as, for example, the payment of dividends, stock splits, tender offers, or a merger and acquisition.

<sup>5</sup> This proposal was first submitted on June 3, 2024. See SR–Nasdaq–2024–024. On June 17, 2024, that filing was withdrawn and replaced with the instant filing to provide additional information in support of the proposal.

<sup>6</sup> As discussed in further detail below, the New York Stock Exchange sells a corporate actions product, but does not file SRO fees for that product. See New York Stock Exchange, Corporate Actions, available at <https://www.nyse.com/market-data/corporate-actions>. NYSE also publishes information related to the execution of corporate actions on a public website, as Nasdaq proposes to do with this filing. The remaining vendors that offer corporate actions products are not SROs.

<sup>7</sup> As discussed below, this estimate is based on Nasdaq’s understanding of the market, as none of the competitor products have published fee schedules.
