SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: HUD's Office of Policy Development and Research (PD&R) maintains the Policy and Research Information System (PARIS) system of records. PARIS serves as a repository of information related to public housing agencies (PHAs), HUD-assisted families, HUD-assisted properties, and other HUD programs for the purposes of research, evaluation, monitoring, and budget formulation. PARIS gives PD&R the ability to extract data from multiple data systems, both internal and external to HUD, and to transform the data into a format that can be easily analyzed and reported on. The records in PARIS are not collected directly from individuals. Records are sent to PARIS from other data systems. Data in PARIS are shared through data exchange within HUD with the following offices: PD&R's Office of Research Evaluation and Monitoring (OREM), Office of Economic Affairs (OEA), the Office of Housing (Single Family and Multifamily), the Office of Public and Indian Housing (PIH), and the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Data in PARIS are exchanged external to HUD with the following agencies: the U.S. Census Bureau (Census), the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), the National Center for Health Statistics (NCHS), the National Institutes of Health (NIH), the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS), the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), the Department of Justice (DOJ), and the Department of Treasury (DOT). The compilation and processing of data from various HUD program offices as well as external sources into the PARIS system provides researchers and policymakers with easy access to data coming from disparate systems. In addition, the data exchange and data sharing through PARIS provides a secure environment for HUD analysts to make data useful for improving HUD programs. The records that come into PARIS from various sources, internal and external to HUD, are kept separate. The databases are constructed in such manner that sources of the data are identified.

PURPOSE(S) OF THE SYSTEM:

HUD PD&R maintains the Policy and Research Information System (PARIS) system of records to serve as a repository of information related to public housing agencies (PHAs), HUD-assisted families, HUD-assisted properties, and other HUD programs for research, evaluation, monitoring, and budget formulation. PARIS gives PD&R the ability to extract data from multiple data systems, both internal and external to HUD, and transform the data into a format that can be easily analyzed and reported on. The reporting functions allow HUD to respond to Congressional requests for data on assisted housing programs. The data collected from the multiple systems and surveys is used and stored solely for statistical purposes and will not be used to identify individuals or make decisions that affect the rights, benefits, or privileges of specific individuals unless it meets one routine use identified in the next section. The data in this system will include location data used to analyze the neighborhoods in which people participating in HUD programs live.

(1) To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) HUD suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records, (2) HUD has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, [the agency] (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with HUD'S efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

(2) To another Federal agency or Federal entity, when HUD determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (2) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach

(3) To a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from that congressional office made at the request of the individual to whom the record pertains.

(4) To appropriate Federal, State, local, tribal, or governmental agencies or multilateral governmental organizations responsible for investigating or prosecuting the violations of, or for enforcing or implementing, a statute, rule, regulation, order, or license, where HUD determines that the information would assist in the enforcement of civil or criminal laws when such records, either alone or in conjunction with other information, indicate a violation or potential violation of law.

(5) To a court, magistrate, administrative tribunal, or arbitrator in the course of presenting evidence, including disclosures to opposing counsel or witnesses in the course of civil discovery, litigation, mediation, or settlement negotiations, or in connection with criminal law proceedings; when HUD determines that use of such records is relevant and necessary to the litigation and when any of the following is a party to the litigation or have an interest in such litigation: (1) HUD, or any component thereof; or (2) any HUD employee in his or her official capacity; or (3) any HUD employee in his or her individual capacity where HUD has agreed to represent the employee; or (4) the United States, or any agency thereof, where HUD determines that litigation is likely to affect HUD or any of its components.

Records under this routine use may not be used in whole or in part to make decisions that affect the rights, benefits, or privileges of specific individuals. The results of the matched information may not be disclosed in identifiable form.

To contractors, grantees, experts, consultants and their agents, students or others performing or working under a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment with HUD, when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to a system of records. Since the records maintained in this system are also found in other HUD systems and used for other purposes, their routine use also applies.

(7) To any component of the Department of Justice or other Federal agency conducting litigation or in proceedings before any court, adjudicative, or administrative body, when HUD determines that the use of such records is relevant and necessary to the litigation and when any of the following is a party to the litigation or have an interest in such litigation: (1) HUD, or any component thereof; or (2) any HUD employee in his or her official capacity; or (3) any HUD employee in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice or agency conducting the litigation has agreed to represent the employee; or (4) the United States, or any agency thereof, where HUD determines that litigation is likely to affect HUD or any of its components.
