The estimated total cost was $21.1 billion. Major Defense Equipment (MDE) constituted $11.5 billion of this total.

On January 5, 2018, CN 0C-17 reported the replacement of the previously notified AGM-65H/K variant with AGM-65, the inclusion of AAR-57A Common Missile Warning Systems, sub-components to JDAM and Laser JDAM, and supplemented the description of General-Purpose Bomb Bodies to include BLU-111, MK-82, BLU-117B, and MK-84 series weapons. The total value of added non-MDE items is $130 million but will not result in an increase in the total estimated non-MDE value. The total estimated case value will remain $21.1 billion.

(iv) Significance: The proposed sale will significantly improve Qatar's defense capabilities to meet current and future threats and deter regional aggression. The inclusion of these items represents an increase in capability over what was originally notified.

(v) Justification: This proposed sale will support the foreign policy and national security objectives of the United States by helping to improve the security of a friendly country that continues to be an important force for political stability and economic progress in the Middle East.

(vi) Sensitivity of Technology:

The GBU-39(T-1)/B SDB GTV is an inert, full-scale configuration of the SDB used to demonstrate safe-separation from the SDB carriage system and parent aircraft, free flight, maneuverability and target accuracy.

The TacSAR system is a non-program of record reconnaissance pod designed for carriage on fighter aircraft that features Active Electronic Scanned Array (AESA) radar technology. TacSAR capabilities include providing long range, day/night, all-weather imagery and Ground Moving Target Indication. The pod can also transmit imagery via a datalink to Ground Stations for near-real time analysis and exploitation. The pod integrates a synthetic aperture radar into the same outer-shell as the DB-110 and MS-110 pods.

The highest level of classification of defense articles, components, and services included in this potential sale is UNCLASSIFIED.
