

Helium (Linde) and is outside of Freeport LNG's control.² Freeport LNG reiterates that its final work on the jurisdictional facilities cannot be completed until the Helium Plant is ready to receive the boil-off gas from Freeport LNG. Therefore, Freeport LNG requests a nine-month extension of time to construct and place its Project in-service by no later than March 21, 2025.

This notice establishes a 15-calendar day intervention and comment period deadline. Any person wishing to comment on Freeport LNG's request for an extension of time may do so. No reply comments or answers will be considered. If you wish to obtain legal status by becoming a party to the proceedings for this request, you should, on or before the comment date stated below, file a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (NGA) (18 CFR 157.10).

As a matter of practice, the Commission itself generally acts on requests for extensions of time to complete construction for NGA facilities when such requests are contested before order issuance. For those extension requests that are contested,³ the Commission will aim to issue an order acting on the request within 45 days.⁴ The Commission will address all arguments relating to whether the applicant has demonstrated there is good cause to grant the extension.⁵ The Commission will not consider arguments that re-litigate the issuance of the certificate order, including whether the Commission properly found the project to be in the public convenience and necessity and whether the Commission's environmental analysis for the certificate complied with the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA).⁶ At the time a pipeline requests an extension of time, orders on certificates of public convenience and necessity are final and the Commission will not re-litigate their issuance.⁷ The Director of the Office of Energy Projects, or his or her designee, will act on all of those extension requests that are uncontested.

I. General Information

A. What should I consider as I prepare my comments for the EPA?

1. Submitting CBI. Do not submit this information to the EPA through www.regulations.gov or email. Clearly mark the part or all of the information that you claim to be CBI. For CBI information in a disk or CD-ROM that you mail to the EPA docket office, mark the outside of the disk or CD-ROM as CBI and then identify electronically within the disk or CD-ROM the specific information that is claimed as CBI. In addition to one complete version of the comment that includes information claimed as CBI, a copy of the comment that does not contain the information claimed as CBI must be submitted for inclusion in the public docket.

Information so marked will not be disclosed except in accordance with procedures set forth in 40 Code of Federal Regulation (CFR) part 2.

2. Tips for Preparing your Comments. When submitting comments, remember to: Identify the notification by docket number and other identifying information (subject heading, Federal Register date and page number).

- Follow directions—The agency may ask you to respond to specific questions or organize comments by referencing a CFR part or section number.

- Explain why you agree or disagree; suggest alternatives and substitute language/data for your requested changes.

- Describe any assumptions and provide any technical information and/or data that you used.

- If you estimate potential costs or burdens, explain how you arrived at your estimate in sufficient detail to allow for it to be reproduced.

- Provide specific examples to illustrate your concerns and suggest alternatives.

- Explain your views as clearly as possible, avoiding the use of profanity or personal threats.

- Make sure to submit your comments by the comment period deadline identified.

II. Information Available for Public Comment

The EPA is requesting comment on one updated chapter of the EPA Air Pollution Control Cost Manual. The Control Cost Manual contains individual chapters on control measures, including data and equations to aid users in estimating capital costs for installation and annual costs for operation and maintenance of these measures, and data concerning the percentage of pollutant emissions that control measures can reduce. The Control Cost Manual is used by the EPA for estimating the impacts of rulemakings and serves as a basis for sources to estimate costs of controls that are Best Available Control Technology (BACT) under the New Source Review Program, the Regional Haze Program, Reasonably Achievable Control Technology (RACT) for State Implementation Plans (SIPs) and for other programs.

The one updated Control Cost Manual chapter is: Chapter 1, Section 6, “Fabric Filters.” This revised Control Cost Manual chapter can be found in the docket for the Control Cost Manual update (Docket ID No. EPA-HQ-OAR-2015-0341). The current Control Cost Manual version (sixth edition) including the current fabric filters chapter is available at <http://epa.gov/ttn/catc/products.html#cccinfo>, and last updated in 2003.

The Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2014 requested that the EPA begin development of a seventh edition of the Control Cost Manual. The EPA has met with state, local, and Tribal officials to discuss plans for the Control Cost Manual update as called for under the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2014. The EPA has met with other groups as well at their request. The EPA has updated the selective non-catalytic reduction (SNCR) and selective catalytic reduction (SCR) chapters, the first two chapters (Chapter 1, Section 4; Chapter 2, Section 4, respectively) completed for the seventh edition of the Control Cost Manual and made them available to the public in May 2016 (81 FR 38702, June 14, 2016) and also updated these chapters again in May 2019. In addition, the EPA has updated the Refrigerated Condensers (Chapter 1, Section 3 and Section 3.1) and Incinerators (Chapter 2, Section 3, Section 3.2, now Incinerators/Oxidizers) chapters in November 2017, the Cost Estimation: Concepts and Methodology chapter (Chapter 2, Section 1) as of November 2017, the Carbon Adsorbers (Chapter 1, Section 3, Section 3.1) and Flares (Chapter 1, Section 3, Section 3.2) chapters in October 2018, and the Gas Absorbers (now Wet and Dry Scrubbers for Acid Gas, Chapter 1, Section 5) chapter in May 2021.

To help focus review of the Fabric Filters chapter, we offer the following list of questions that the EPA is particularly interested in addressing in the updated chapter. Regardless of the topics that are covered in this list of questions, commenters are welcome to address any aspects of this chapter. Please provide supporting data for responses to these questions and for other comments on the chapter.

For the Fabric Filters chapter:

(1) What is a reasonable and up-to-date estimate of equipment life (defined as design or operational life) for fabric filters—that is, an entire fabric filter system, not just the filter bags or cages? Please provide data, if possible, on accurate estimates of equipment life.

(2) Are the descriptions of and technical background on fabric filters complete, up to date, and accurate with regard to control of PM (including PM_{2.5})? Please provide information, if possible, on descriptions of and background on control of PM by fabric filters if you do not believe that the descriptions in the draft chapter are complete, up to date, and accurate.

(3) Is the applicability of fabric filters to various types of emissions sources complete, up to date, and accurate?

(4) Are the estimates of PM (including PM_{2.5}) removal or control efficiency for fabric filters accurate and up-to-date? If not, what are more accurate estimates? Please provide data, if possible, to address inaccuracies.

(5) Is the information accurate on how fabric filters operate in tandem with control technologies such as dry sorbent injection (DSI) to reduce sulfur dioxide and activated carbon injection (ACI) to reduce mercury? Please provide data, if possible, to address inaccuracies.

(6) Are the capital cost correlations, factors, and equations for fabric filters applied to various types of emissions sources and industries accurate and up to date? Are the annual costs (such as operating and maintenance costs) for fabric filters applied to various types of emissions sources and industries accurate and up-to-date? If not, how should they be revised? Please provide data, if possible, to address inaccuracies.

(7) This revised Control Cost Manual chapter lists test methods used to measure the performance of fabric media. Is the list of test methods accurate and up-to-date?

Erika N. Sasser,

Director, Health and Environmental Impacts Division.
