Refillable Stainless Steel Kegs From the People’s Republic of China: Rescission of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review; 2022–2023

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) is rescinding the administrative review of the antidumping duty order on refillable stainless steel kegs (kegs) from the People’s Republic of China (China) for the period of review (POR) December 1, 2022, through November 30, 2023.

DATES: Applicable August 22, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Joshua Weiner AD/CVD Operations, Office IV, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–3902.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On December 16, 2019, Commerce published in the Federal Register the antidumping duty order on kegs from China.¹ On December 1, 2023, Commerce published in the Federal Register a notice of opportunity to request an administrative review of the Order.² On January 2, 2024, Commerce received a timely request from Chinese exporters of subject merchandise,

Guangzhou Jingye Machinery Co., Ltd. (Jingye) and Guangzhou Ulix Industrial & Trading Co., Ltd. (Ulix), in accordance with 19 CFR 351.213(b)(1), to conduct an administrative review of the Order of those two companies.³

On February 8, 2024, Commerce published in the Federal Register a notice of initiation of administrative review with respect to imports of kegs exported by Jingye and Ulix, in accordance with section 751(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), and 19 CFR 351.221(c)(1)(i).⁴ On February 21, 2024, we placed on the record U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) data for entries of kegs from China during the POR, showing no reviewable POR entries and invited interested parties to comment.⁵ No interested party submitted comments to Commerce regarding the CBP data.

On March 11, 2024, Ulix submitted a separate rate certification that it exported or sold subject merchandise to the United States during the POR.⁶ On July 16, 2024, Commerce issued a supplemental questionnaire to Ulix, and Ulix responded on July 26, 2024, certifying that it did not have a reviewable sale or entry during the POR and that their separate rate certification had been made in error.⁷

On July 22, 2024, Commerce tolled certain deadlines in this administrative proceeding by seven days.⁸ The deadline for the preliminary results is now September 9, 2024.

On July 29, 2024, Commerce notified all interested parties of its intent to rescind the instant review in full because there were no reviewable, suspended entries of subject merchandise by either of the two companies listed in the Initiation Notice during the POR and invited comments from interested parties.⁹ No interested party submitted comments to Commerce in response to this notice.

Rescission of Review

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.213(d)(3), it is Commerce’s practice to rescind an administrative review of an antidumping duty order when there are no reviewable entries of subject merchandise during the POR for which liquidation is suspended.¹⁰ Normally, upon completion of an administrative review, the suspended entries are liquidated at the antidumping duty assessment rate calculated for the review period.¹¹ Therefore, for an administrative review to be conducted, there must be a reviewable, suspended entry that Commerce can instruct CBP to liquidate at the antidumping duty assessment rate calculated for the review period.¹² As noted above, there were no entries of subject merchandise for either of the two companies listed in the Initiation Notice during the POR. Accordingly, in the absence of suspended entries of subject merchandise during the POR, we are hereby rescinding this administrative review, in its entirety, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.213(d)(3).

Assessment

Commerce will instruct CBP to assess antidumping duties on all appropriate entries. Antidumping duties shall be assessed at rates equal to the cash deposit of estimated antidumping duties required at the time of entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.212(c)(1)(i). Commerce intends to issue assessment instructions to CBP no earlier than 35 days after the date of publication of this rescission notice in the Federal Register.

Administrative Protective Order

This notice serves as the only reminder to parties subject to an administrative protective order (APO) of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305(a)(3). Timely written notification of the return or destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and terms of an APO is a violation subject to sanction.

Corporation for Travel Promotion Board of Directors

AGENCY: International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of an opportunity for travel and tourism industry leaders to apply for membership on the Board of Directors of the Corporation for Travel Promotion (Corporation).

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (Department) is currently seeking applications from travel and tourism leaders from a specific industry sector for membership on the Board of Directors (Board) of the Corporation (doing business as Brand USA). The purpose of the Board is to guide the Corporation on matters relating to the promotion of the United States as a travel destination and communication of travel facilitation issues, among other tasks.

DATES: All applications must be received by the National Travel and Tourism Office by close of business on Friday, September 20, 2024.

ADDRESSES: Please submit application information by email to CTPBoard@trade.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Curt Cottle, National Travel and Tourism Office, U.S. Department of Commerce; telephone: 202–482–4601; email: CTPBoard@trade.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Travel Promotion Act of 2009 (TPA) was signed into law on March 4, 2010, and was amended in July 2010, December 2014, and again in December 2019. The TPA established the Corporation as a non-profit corporation charged with the development and execution of a plan to (A) provide useful information to those interested in traveling to the United States; (B) identify and address perceptions regarding U.S. entry policies; (C) maximize economic and diplomatic benefits of travel to the United States through the use of various promotional tools; (D) ensure that international travel benefits all States, territories of the United States, and the District of Columbia; (E) identify opportunities to promote tourism to rural and urban areas equally, including areas not traditionally visited by international travelers; (F) give priority to countries and populations most likely to travel to the United States; and (G) promote tourism to the United States through digital media, online platforms, and other appropriate mediums.

The Corporation is governed by a Board of Directors, consisting of 11 members with knowledge of international travel promotion or marketing, broadly representing various regions of the United States. The TPA directs the Secretary of Commerce (after consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Secretary of State) to appoint the Board for the Corporation.

At this time, the Department will be selecting one individuals with the appropriate expertise and experience from the Land or Sea Passenger Transportation sector of the travel and tourism industry to serve the remainder of an unexpired term on the Board, which is one year with eligibility for reappointment.

To be eligible for Board membership, individuals must have international travel and tourism marketing experience, and be a current or former chief executive officer, chief financial officer, or chief marketing officer or have held an equivalent management position. Additional consideration will be given to individuals who have experience working in U.S. multinational entities with marketing budgets, and/or who are audit committee financial experts as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission (in accordance with 15 U.S.C. 7265). Individuals must be U.S. citizens and, in addition, cannot be federally registered lobbyists or registered as a foreign agent under the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended.

Members of the Board are selected, in accordance with applicable Department guidelines and after consultation with the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security, based on their ability to carry out the objectives of the Board and as set forth above. The diverse membership of the Board assures perspectives reflecting the breadth of the Board's responsibilities and, where possible, the Department will also consider the ethnic, racial, gender, sexual orientation, and gender identity
