SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice allows an additional 30 days for public comment on the notice that published July 8, 2024 at 89 FR 55963. This notice relies on the authority of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995; 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq., chapter 35, as amended. An ICR is an application to OIRA seeking the approval, extension, or renewal of a S&T collection of information (Collection). The ICR contains information describing the Collection's purpose, the Collection's likely burden on the affected public, an explanation of the necessity of the Collection, and other important information describing the Collection. There is one ICR for each Collection.

S&T invites comments on whether this ICR should be granted based on the Collection being necessary for the proper performance of Departmental functions. In particular, S&T would appreciate comments addressing: (1) The practical utility of the Collection; (2) the accuracy of the estimated burden of the Collection; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of information subject to the Collection; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of the Collection on respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice informs the public that HUD is seeking approval from OMB for the information collection described in Section A.

The Federal Register notice that solicited public comment on the information collection for a period of 60 days was published on April 15, 2024 at 89 FR 26181.

A. Overview of Information Collection

Title of Information Collection: HUD Correspondence Tracking System Correspondence Portal.

OMB Approval Number: 2501–NEW.

Type of Request: New collection.

Form Number: N/A.

Description of the need for the information and proposed use: HUD collects information about customers for mission-related use that contact the Agency with questions and/or comments. Respondents have the ability to submit their electronic requests through the Public Access Link. The HUD staff then enters the information into the system to support answering the public question/comment. If the inquiry can be answered immediately, then HUD addresses the request. If the inquiry requires follow-up, then the customer's information is collected for a future response. Minimum data is collected to create an interaction history between the individual and HUD, name, home address, email address, or phone number. HUD accepts electronic submissions from respondents through the Public Access Link, which reduces the burden on the public.

Respondents: Individuals who wish to contact the Agency with questions and/or comments.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 582.

Frequency of Response: 1.

Estimated Number of Responses: 582.

Average Hours per Response: 0.33.

Total Estimated Burdens: 192.06.
