SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

FDA is issuing this guidance document to introduce submitters of De Novo requests<sup>1</sup> to CDRH and CBER to the current resources and associated content developed and made publicly available to support De Novo electronic submissions to FDA. This guidance is intended to represent one of several steps in meeting FDA’s commitment to the development of electronic submission templates to serve as guided submission preparation tools for industry to improve submission consistency and enhance efficiency in the review process.<sup>2</sup> This guidance facilitates the implementation of FDA’s mandate under section 745A(b) of the FD&C Act, amended by section 207 of the FDA Reauthorization Act of 2017 (FDARA) (Pub. L. 115-52<sup>3</sup>) to provide further standards for the submission by electronic format, a timetable for establishment of these further standards, and criteria for waivers of and exemptions from the requirements.

FDA’s guidance document “Providing Regulatory Submissions for Medical Devices in Electronic Format—Submissions Under Section 745A(b) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act”<sup>4</sup> (hereafter referred to as the “745A(b) device parent guidance”) provides a process for the development of templates to facilitate the preparation, submission, and review of regulatory submissions for medical devices solely in electronic format. As described in the 745A(b) device parent guidance, FDA plans to implement the requirements of section 745A(b)(3) of the FD&C Act with individual guidances specifying the formats for specific submissions and corresponding timetables for implementation. This guidance will provide such information for De Novo electronic submissions solely in electronic format.

A notice of availability of the draft guidance appeared in the Federal Register of September 29, 2023 (88 FR 67309). FDA considered comments received and revised the guidance as appropriate in response to the comments, including clarification of the use of technical screening during acceptance review and inclusion of the date when the use of eSTAR for De Novo Requests will become mandatory.

In section 745A(b) of the FD&C Act, Congress granted explicit statutory authorization to FDA to specify in guidance the statutory requirement for electronic submissions solely in electronic format by providing standards, a timetable, and criteria for waivers and exemptions. To the extent that this guidance provides such requirements under section 745A(b)(3) of the FD&C Act (i.e., standards, timetable, criteria for waivers of and exemptions), indicated by the use of the mandatory words, such as must or required, this document is not subject to the usual restrictions in FDA’s good guidance practice regulations, such as the requirement that guidances not establish legally enforceable responsibilities. (See § 10.115(d).)

To the extent that this guidance describes recommendations that are not standards, timetable, criteria for waivers of, or exemptions under section 745A(b)(3) of the FD&C Act, it is being issued consistent with FDA’s good guidance practices regulation (§ 10.115). The guidance represents the current thinking of FDA on Electronic Submission Template for Medical Device De Novo Requests. It does not establish any rights for any person and is not binding on FDA or the public.

You can use an alternative approach if it satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations. This guidance contains both binding and nonbinding provisions.

[Docket No. FDA–2021–N–0874]

Final Decision on the Proposal To Refuse To Approve a New Drug Application for ITCA 650

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is issuing an order under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FD&C Act) refusing to approve a new drug application (NDA) submitted by Intarcia Therapeutics, Inc., an i2o Therapeutics Business Unit, (Intarcia) for ITCA 650 (exenatide in DUROS device). FDA has determined that the approval criteria in the FD&C Act have not been met because Intarcia has failed to demonstrate that ITCA 650 is safe for its intended conditions of use.

DATES: This notice is applicable August 23, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Rachael Vieder Linowes, Office of Scientific Integrity, Food and Drug Administration, 10903 New Hampshire Ave., Bldg. 1, Rm. 4206, Silver Spring, MD 20993, 240–402–5931.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Factual and Procedural Background

ITCA 650 (exenatide in DUROS device) is a novel drug-device combination product for human patients intended to deliver the active ingredient, exenatide, a glucagon-like peptide-1 receptor agonist (GLP–1 RA). Intarcia proposed that ITCA 650 be indicated as an adjunct to diet and exercise to improve glycemic control in adults with type 2 diabetes mellitus. ITCA 650 is intended to provide continuous dosing of exenatide from an osmotic mini-pump implanted in the subdermal space of the abdomen for 3 months for initiation of therapy and every 6 months afterwards for maintenance therapy. ITCA 650 must be inserted and removed by a healthcare provider trained on the included placement tool and guide. ITCA 650 is proposed in two dosage strengths: 20 micrograms (mcg)/day for 3 months and 60 mcg/day for 6 months. The drug formulation used in ITCA 650 is a viscous, non-aqueous suspension. Each mini-pump of ITCA 650—20 mcg/day for 3 months and 60 mcg/day for 6 months—nominally contains 2.56 milligrams (mg) and 14.05 mg of synthetic exenatide, respectively.

On November 21, 2016, Intarcia submitted NDA 209053 for ITCA 650. In support of its NDA, Intarcia included three phase 3 clinical trials to establish substantial evidence of safety and effectiveness—CLP–103, CLP–105, and CLP–107. CLP–107, also known as FREEDOM, was a cardiovascular outcome trial (CVOT). On September 21, 2017, the Center for Drug Evaluation and Research (CDER) issued a complete response (CR) letter to Intarcia stating that the NDA could not be approved in its present form. On September 19, 2019, Intarcia resubmitted the NDA, and on March 9, 2020, CDER issued a second CR letter stating that the NDA could not be approved in its present form, describing specific deficiencies and, where deemed possible, recommending ways that Intarcia might remedy those deficiencies.

On March 16, 2021, after pursuing formal dispute resolution, Intarcia submitted a request under 21 CFR 314.110(b)(3) for an opportunity for a hearing on whether there are grounds under section 505(d) of the FD&C Act (21 U.S.C. 355(d)) for refusing to approve the NDA for ITCA 650. CDER subsequently published a notice of opportunity for a hearing (NOOH) regarding a proposal to refuse to approve the NDA (86 FR 49334
